

THE PORTSMOUTH HERALD.

VOL. XXV, NO. 9.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1909.

The Portsmouth Daily Republican merged with The Herald, July 1, 1902.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

DEPUTY SHERIFF MAY BE SUED

Summer Episode at Eliot May Be Aired in the Maine Courts

Biddeford, Me., Oct. 4.—The Biddeford Journal states that Deputy Sheriff Moses E. Goodwin of Eliot may figure as defendant in a suit of $2,000 brought by Mrs. Evelyn A. Fletcher Copp, in which she alleges assault and battery.

Mrs. Copp who is a teacher in the advanced methods of music, has a large class of lady pupils from all over the county the summer at her studio at Tobey's corner in that town. Last summer while the class was at study the deputy sheriff, it is alleged, came in to collect a disputed bill for rent or something.

An argument took place and Mrs. Copp is said to have become hysterical, so much so that it alarmed her pupils who in sympathy set up a great howl and there was lots of excitement.

The story, as given out, is that she refused to pay the amount and the sheriff became angry and violent, the attorney alleges, and grabbed Mrs. Cobb and assaulted her in such a way that she has suffered severely.

The suit is brought by the law firm of Albert E. Lunt of Boston and the papers are understood to be returnable at the January term of York county superior court in Saco.

No Writ Served

Eliot, Me., Oct. 4.—Deputy Sheriff Moses E. Goodwin was asked this morning if he had any statement to make in regard to the report of Mrs. Evelyn Fletcher Copp of New York suing him for assault and battery. He declined to make any statement, but he declined to talk about the circumstances. It has been generally reported that he was badly scratched about the face and that his clothes were torn by some of the teacher under restraint.

The neighborhood was pretty thoroughly aroused by the screaming of women on that occasion. It is understood that the deputy sheriff kept cool and unruffled amid the uproar.

LIQUOR RAID AT DEERFIELD

Sheriff Spinney and Deputies Found Stuff at Hotel

Deerfield, Oct. 4.—Sheriff Ceylon Spinney of Portsmouth visited this town Saturday night with several deputies and raided the Exchange hotel finding there a quantity of liquor. The proprietor, George F. Granger, was notified to appear before a justice at Raymond on Tuesday morning.

THE WEATHER

Monday night and Tuesday.—Continued fair and cool with moderate northerly winds.

Locks repaired and Keys fitted. Philbrick, No. 26 Congress street.

KITTERY LETTER

Football Games and Local Teams

Fill at Wood Island Life Saving Station

Kittery Point Woman in the Portsmouth Hospital

Cribbage Tournament to be Held by the Kittery Yacht Club

Kittery, Me., Oct. 4. Kittery correspondent's telephone 297-5.

Traip academy was defeated by the Horace Mitchell school by a score of 10 to 5 on Kittery field Saturday afternoon. Splendid work was done on the winning team by C. Witham and H. Witham, while on the Academy team Baker and Hubbard left little to be desired. The winners were outweighed a total of 235 pounds. Following are the line ups: Horace Mitchell School: Sawyer, r e; C. Witham, r t; Billings, r g; C. Cobb, c; Phillips, l g; Bliss, l t; Fletcher, l e; H. Witham, q b; Raynes l h b; R. Cobb, r h b; Hodgdon f h.

Traip Academy: Poul, l e; Hubbard, l t; Heeney, l g; Raymond Brickett, c; Blaney, r g; Tobey, r t; Anderson, r e; Russell Brickett, q b; E. Chick, r h b; W. Chick, l h b; Baker, f h.

In view of that fact that numerous ships are expected at this navy yard for extensive repairs, it would seem that the recent discharges could be more than temporary layoffs. Surely there will be no dearth of work here after the vessels reach port.

James Boardman, who received a cut necessitating some rest while at work in his gasoline boat last week is recovering. The handle in the engine fly wheel inflicted the injury.

James Kelley passed Sunday with relatives in Portsmouth.

Col. Jethro H. Sweet has returned from a visit to New York and the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

The Kittery Yacht club cribbage tournament begins Tuesday evening, and there will be weekly sessions throughout the winter. Prizes will be given each evening as well as a grand prize at the end of the season. Members must send substitutes if unable to attend themselves.

U. G. Sweet of Love lane was in York today on business.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will be held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alfred Gogins. The program is being arranged by the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Manson, whose birthday comes this month, and will be a "Mothers' Meeting." Many matters pertaining to home and motherhood will be discussed. There will also be reports presented from the Maine and New Hampshire state conventions.

Have you tried the Electrical Method of cleaning House?

The Everson Vacuum Cleaner does the work perfectly.

PRICE

$65.00

Sample at our office will be rented for $3.00 per day.

TRY IT

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY LIGHT & POWER CO

J. S. Whitaker, Supt.

ed from the Maine and New Hampshire state conventions.

Mrs. Annie Shannon of Pleasant street is visiting relatives in Chelsea and Boston for a short time.

Wilson Long of Jones avenue is visiting relatives in Bowdoinham, Me.

George Dinsmore is on a visit to Lynn, Mass., Chicago, Ill. and Cleveland, O.

A regular monthly meeting of the Kittery Yacht club will be held Thursday evening.

Miss Emily Wilson of Boston arrived Sunday with her brother, Thomas E. Wilson and wife of Government street.

The work of discharging the naval collier Sterling of her cargo of 2300 tons of coal for the department of supply and accounts began at the navy yard this morning.

The winter schedule of trains on the Atlantic Shore Line went into effect this morning.

Miss Luella Smith, who has been passing the summer in Connecticut, returned on Friday to her home in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grant and child of Lynn returned home on Sunday after a short visit at his former home in town.

John Stevens of Whipple Road is having a week off from his work at the navy yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Paul have taken up their residence in their new home on Walker street.

George O. Wilson Jr., is enjoying a vacation from his duties on the navy yard. He starts Tuesday for a trip to Charlottesville, P. E. I.

Riverside lodge, No. 72, Independent Order of Odd Fellows meets this evening in Odd Fellows' hall. The first degree will be worked.

One of the wire cables in the Portsmouth bridge draw parted as the draw was being opened Sunday night and allowed the structure to swing out of position. A lighter employed at the Wood Island life saving station came to the rescue and placed the draw back in place before damage resulted.

George Damon Injured

George W. Damon baggage muster at the Kittery Junction station, was quite badly hurt Sunday afternoon when the draw of the Portsmouth and Kittery bridge went into the river.

Mr. Damon was working on the handle of the hoisting apparatus of the draw when the section dropped. In some way the handle was given a reverse motion with a suddenness and force for which he was not prepared.

The handle struck Mr. Damon a fierce blow across the fleshy part of his left leg, near the groin, and across the lower part of the bowels. He was knocked back several feet and for a time was in great distress.

He was taken to his home in Kittery in a carriage and Dr. J. D. Curly of Kittery Point called. No dangerous injuries were found, but it will be several days before Mr. Damon will be able to go back to work.

Mr. Damon has been in the employ of the Boston and Maine for almost 25 years, and is considered one of the most faithful of its workers.

Karnan-Canney

Mr. Roy Karnan of Boston and Miss Anna Canney of North Kittery were married at the bride's home this noon by Rev. Daniel Ouslett.

Kittery Point

Kittery Point correspondent's telephone 297-5.

Rowe Brothers of Portland have taken the contract to fill in behind the sea wall at the Wood Island life saving station. The lighters Hercules, Levithan and Reliance will do the work which will occupy about a week. The first two named lighters arrived Sunday, while the last is expected on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ellory Jenkinson left today for Cambridge, Mass., to attend the inauguration of President Abbott Lawrence Lowell of Harvard University. Mr. Lowell and Mr. Jenkinson are '77 classmates.

The newly organized Kittery Point football team has challenged the Kittery team for a game next Saturday. From the following line up it will be seen that the new eleven is a

(Continued on the fourth page)

RAILROAD BRIDGE DRAW BROKE

Promptly Repaired and Train Service Was Resumed in Seven Hours

An accident to the draw on the Portsmouth and Kittery bridge on held up traffic for part of the afternoon and evening.

The draw was being swung open shortly after 3 o'clock to allow one of the Piscataqua Navigation tugboats to pass through, and one end had just cleared the bed on which it rests when one of the guys parted near the top of the tower, allowing one end to drop in the river. The other guy held the truss from entirely breaking away and going with the tide down river.

A hurried all was sent out for the bridge crew who were soon on the scene and started the work of swinging it back on the bed.

A lighter, owned by Rowe Brothers, on its way to Boston, was in the harbor and was pressed into service and made quick work of lifting the draw.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the Sunday train from York came in over the bridge and through service was resumed.

The evening train from the mountains, due here after 7 p. m., came over the Western division via Dover, and the Pullman was sent up over the branch to Dover.

Passengers for Manchester and Concord were transferred from the York Beach train at Kittery and left this city for their home in Alma.

The workmen are today finishing up some minor work on the bridge.

RECORDS OF RYE

Great Scarcity of Apples in the Beach Town

More Cottage Closing and Home Going by Summer Folks

Rye, Oct. 4. Frank Parsons of Boston is passing his annual vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. Albion Parsons.

Mrs. Eliza Marden is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Albion Parsons.

Mrs. Charles Varrell who has been visiting relatives in Nova Scotia for several weeks, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Vard Leavitt of Haverhill, Mass., were the guests on Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Parsons and family at Rye Centre.

Rev. H. A. Barber and family, who have been passing several weeks in the northern part of the state, returned to their home on Saturday. The Christian church society are to install a new furnace in their parsonage this week.

Apples are very scarce this year in this town and farmers are beginning to wonder what they will do for vinegar this winter.

Mrs. Fidelia Hurd of Brookline, who has been visiting in Camden, Me., for several weeks, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker for a short time before her return to her home.

Frank Jenness has accepted a position with the General Electric company of Lynn, Mass.

Mr. Daniel J. Parsons and Mr. Arthur C. Walker were visitors in Amesbury, Mass., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jenness of Rye Beach, were the guests of relatives in Salisbury, Mass., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Seaver and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seaver and family have been enjoying cottage life at Hampton beach for a few days.

Mr. Andrew Caswell and family of Portsmouth, who have been occupying the Young cottage at Wallis Sands this season, returned to their home in Portsmouth today.

SPECIAL ADDRESSES

On Sunday Rev. William P. Stanley, pastor of the Middle Street Baptist church, began a series of addresses upon significant questions, as follows:

Oct. 3, "What sayest thou of thyself?"
Oct. 10, "What must I do to be saved?"
Oct. 17, "After Death, what?"
Oct. 24, "When?"

PORTSMOUTH PARISH INVITED

The Unitarian Alliance of Exeter has invited the members of the Portsmouth Alliance and parish to meet with it and its neighborhood gathering on October 14.

It's the Herald every day for the local news.

EVENTS OF ELIOT

All Diphtheria Cases Are Out of Quarantine

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Farnald are Home from Europe

Eliot, Me., Oct. 4. The school in District No. 3, East Eliot, reopened this morning. All the diphtheria victims have recovered and been released from quarantine, and the disease has been kept from spreading. There is considerable indignation at the instructions in a certain paper that the presence of the disease there was due to keeping dirty. The contagion struck two of the nicest families to be found anywhere, and they were not in a village but on farms.

Dr. and Mrs. James Rogers of Portland spent Sunday with her sisters, the Misses Dame and Mrs. Tripp.

Arthur Clapp of the Christian Shore, Portsmouth, visited Murray Nelson over Saturday and Sunday. Constructor Frank L. Farnald, U. S. N., retired, Mrs. Farnald and her sister, Mrs. Cullen, have returned from Europe and are at the summer home on Greenwood street.

Herbert Nelson was at Exeter on Saturday.

The Grange dramatic club has "A Noble Outcast" in rehearsal. Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Libbey of Boston spent Sunday with their Portsmouth relatives.

Mrs. Maude Ives and Mrs. Martha Coleman will be delegates from the Congregational church and Superintendent Wallace E. Dixon from the Sunday school to the York Congregational conference at South Berwick on Tuesday and Wednesday. The pastor, Rev. Edgar T. Pitts, is ex-officio a member of the conference, and is programmed to deliver the principal address at the evening session.

MRS. CHARLES HAZELTINE

Former Portsmouth Woman Dies At Ipswich

The many friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Charles Hazeltine will be sorry to learn of her death, which recently occurred in the town of Ipswich, where she has conducted a ladies furnishing store in company with her sister, Mrs. Hough, since April last.

Mrs. Hazeltine was formerly connected with the George B. French company of this city and for over a year was employed in the cloak department of that business house. Mrs. Hazeltine possessed more than an ordinary degree of business ability and was a woman of culture and refinement.

She was a native of Boston and leaves one sister. Her death was the result of heart trouble.

Geo. B. French Co Underwear Department

Flannelette Garments, Night Robes and Skirts.

Complete Lines, All Qualities and Styles, Popular Prices.

- |   |        |
|---|--------|
| Flannelette Night Robes, Pink or Blue Stripe, full length, braid or collar.....   | 50c    |
| Flannelette Robes, made from an excellent quality Outing, Fancy Stripes in Pink or Blue, full width and length.....           | 79c    |
| Flannelette Robes, Plain White Heavy Outing, collar and yoke trimmed with white silk braid, all sizes up to 19 inclusive..... | $1.00 |
| Flannelette Robes, heavy quality, silk braid and ribbon trimmed, scalloped edge on cuffs and collar.....                      | $1.39 |
| Children's Flannelette Gowns, Pink or Blue Stripe.....  | 50c    |
| Flannelette Short Skirts, Plain Colors, White, Pink or Blue, scalloped edge.....  | 50c    |
| Flannelette Short Skirts, Pink, Blue, Stripe or Fancy Checks.....   | 50c    |

Infants' and Children's Wear

Long and Short Coats, Fall and Winter Styles.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| Bedford Cord Long Coats, silk braid and ribbon trimmed, lined with surah.....  | $1.98, $2.25, $3.00, $3.98 to $5.00 |
| Bedford Cord Short Coats, fancy trimmed.....   | $1.98 to $5.00                         |
| White Corduroy Short Coats.....  | $4.00                                   |
| Bearskin Coats, white and colors.....  | $1.98, $2.50                           |
| Children's Short Coats, Navy Blue and Red, 2 to 5 year old sizes, Twilled Flannel, silk braid trimmed, lined with surah..... | $2.25, $2.98, $3.50, $4.98 to $6.00 |
| Brown Broadcloth Coat, 5 year size, perfectly plain.....   | $6.50                                   |
| Black and White Check Coat, 5 year old size, trimmed with black silk braid and buttons.....                                  | $6.00                                   |
| Mode Shade Corduroy Coat, 4 year old size, trimmed with beaver beads.....  | $4.50                                   |

Ladies' Home Journal Patterns.

Fall Style Books 20c, including a 15c Pattern

Geo. B. French Co

Theatrical Topics of the Day.

The Final Settlement

Portraying the grave consequences that sometimes follow the sudden acquisition of wealth and power, "The Final Settlement" will be the attraction at Portsmouth Music Hall on Friday evening of this week.

Many problems of great social interest are contained in the production and a strong moral lesson is pointed out, depicting as it does the rise of a strong young mechanic, who, though humble in both position and ambitions, from this position of obscurity rises through his own efforts to the presidency of a great trust.

In this exalted position of opulence and power the adherents of the social life in which he moves proves too much for him, and he divorces his wife, a woman of conservative, homely taste, who, despite her husband's position, still retains her orthodox conceptions of life.

The man, after securing his divorce, marries a beautiful actress, thinking that her talents and charms will enable him to obtain the social leadership he so much desires. This ambition proves fruitless, and his subsequent disgrace and ruin, and ultimate rescue in which his former wife takes an active part, form the basis of the drama.

Paid in Full

At the Portsmouth Music Hall Oct. 2, the Wagonwheel & Klemper Company with other famous actors presented a play of the present day, "Paid in Full," a drama whose tremendous success and extraordinary popularity have made a sensational chapter in theatrical history.

The record of "Paid in Full" beginning on the night it awoke New York to highest enthusiasm, places it far and away in the lead of any play this country has seen. After two notable openings in New York when a critical first night audience was roused to cheers, "Paid in Full" remained two years in Broadway. Summer did not check its run. It is the only play without music that has ever had a continuous summer run in New York.

So exceptional was its popularity that last year the Wagonwheel & Klemper Co. had five companies presenting it in all parts of the country. Each of these companies appeared at different times in Greater New York where every return engagement of the play proved a fresh and brilliant attraction in the metropolis. Each time it came back it repeated its enormous hit.

Again this season the same five companies are continued.

The Third Degree

"The Third Degree" will be at the Portsmouth Music Hall Friday evening, Oct. 2, and Saturday matinee and evening, Oct. 3. This was seen at Portland, Me., last Friday evening and the next morning's Daily Argus said:

A fair sized audience greeted the second performance of the great play "The Third Degree" at the Jefferson Theatre last night and again the company and play scored a most emphatic hit. That the company is felt to be strong and in some characters stronger than the original Boston company has been attested by those who have seen both companies. The play itself is worthy of a larger performance than has been accorded it here and then when it is recognized as the best of the dramatic company of the American theatre should be so treated.

"The Third Degree" is a sensational play. It is interesting and fascinating and it leaves a lasting impression on all who see it and are not afraid to see it. It is a play that has made it a success in the larger cities and it should be so treated here. It is a play that has been successful in every city where it has been presented and it should be so treated here.

"The Third Degree" will be at the Portsmouth Music Hall Friday evening, Oct. 2, and Saturday matinee and evening, Oct. 3. This was seen at Portland, Me., last Friday evening and the next morning's Daily Argus said:

A fair sized audience greeted the second performance of the great play "The Third Degree" at the Jefferson Theatre last night and again the company and play scored a most emphatic hit. That the company is felt to be strong and in some characters stronger than the original Boston company has been attested by those who have seen both companies. The play itself is worthy of a larger performance than has been accorded it here and then when it is recognized as the best of the dramatic company of the American theatre should be so treated.

"The Third Degree" will be at the Portsmouth Music Hall Friday evening, Oct. 2, and Saturday matinee and evening, Oct. 3. This was seen at Portland, Me., last Friday evening and the next morning's Daily Argus said:

unity island, the auxiliary supply from Great for Yokohama, the trip-deck boat from New York for New York, the cruiser Montgomery from Newport for Philadelphia and the cruiser Prairie from Tompkinsville for Philadelphia.

A memorial to the sailors of the navy was to be erected at the Annapolis Naval Academy by the United States Navy. The monument was to be erected at a recent meeting of the board of managers of the society at Annapolis, Md. The monument was to be erected at a recent meeting of the board of managers of the society at Annapolis, Md.

London, Oct. 1.—The publication is announced of one of the most remarkable achievements of recent literary research, which has just been completed. This is the translation of a large number of John Wesley's original diaries and manuscripts which have been carefully collected in England and America.

These documents, the existence of which had been known, were written in a carefully and elaborately arranged long hand, in which the hand and in a light-colored ink.

Rev. Nehemiah Curran, with the assistance of expert scribes, during four years in the work of deciphering the cipher, used chiefly in an Oxford diary and relating to religious beliefs. The cipher for a long time baffled Mr. Curran, but a missing letter at last came to him in a dream.

The document throws a new and strange light on the development of Wesley's character, on his literary and social activity in America, on the part he played in the creation of a new church hymnology and on his early life at Oxford. New versions of early journals have come to light, including a beautiful account of the famous Georgia love affair. The discoveries will necessitate the rewriting of the great religious teacher's life.

FOOTBALL

Harvard defeated Brown, 17 to 6. Yale defeated Syracuse, 15 to 6. Dartmouth and Vermont Universities failed to score.

Princeton defeated Tufts, 22 to 0. Brown defeated Colgate, 11 to 0. Holy Cross defeated New Haven, 14 to 0.

Springfield T. S. defeated Amherst 6 to 5. Phillips Exeter defeated Lowell, 15 to 0.

Newburyport H. S. defeated Essex, 8, 5 to 0. Dartmouth reserves defeated Elmira H. S., 2 to 0.

St. Anselm and Dean academies failed to score. Rochester H. S. defeated Dover, 11, 0 to 0.

NEW HAMPSHIRE MAN

An important Committee of the International Tax Commission.

Concord, Oct. 1.—At a meeting of the tax commissioners and others convened in the administration of the laws at the close of the tax conference at Annapolis, Md., Mr. M. C. Brown was appointed as a member of the committee for a meeting of the tax commissioners at Annapolis, Md., to be held in connection with the tax conference and to formulate and recommend a permanent organization.

The object is to bring together from all sections of the country the men engaged in the practical administration of the tax laws for consultation of the various laws and for general discussion and exchange of ideas.

The other members of the committee are: Lawrence Parry, president of the department of taxes and assessments of New York city; chairman, and William H. Corbin of Hartford, tax commissioner of the state of Connecticut.

ADMIRAL CLABORE DEAD

During Spanish War He Commanded Hospital at White Va.

John Wesley

JOHN WESLEY

a new Methodist Did Things Not as Has Been Told

London, Oct. 1.—The publication is announced of one of the most remarkable achievements of recent literary research, which has just been completed. This is the translation of a large number of John Wesley's original diaries and manuscripts which have been carefully collected in England and America.

These documents, the existence of which had been known, were written in a carefully and elaborately arranged long hand, in which the hand and in a light-colored ink.

Rev. Nehemiah Curran, with the assistance of expert scribes, during four years in the work of deciphering the cipher, used chiefly in an Oxford diary and relating to religious beliefs. The cipher for a long time baffled Mr. Curran, but a missing letter at last came to him in a dream.

The document throws a new and strange light on the development of Wesley's character, on his literary and social activity in America, on the part he played in the creation of a new church hymnology and on his early life at Oxford. New versions of early journals have come to light, including a beautiful account of the famous Georgia love affair. The discoveries will necessitate the rewriting of the great religious teacher's life.

CANDIA TO SUNCOOK

Exeter Board of Trade Asks to Have the Rails Relaid

Exeter, Oct. 1.—The board of trade today evening unanimously adopted the following:

"Resolved, First, That it is the sense of the Exeter board of trade that it is for the best interests of Rockingham county and of Exeter, on the Concord and Portsmouth railroad shall relay the rails between Candia and Suncook.

Second, That we urge the stockholders at their meeting Oct. 7 to vote to relay the rails on this road thus saving about 11 miles for all freight and passengers going north, making our only shortcut, Portsmouth the best and shortest route for rail for all northern parts of the state.

"Third, That Hans W. Baber be appointed to represent this board at the annual meeting of Oct. 7 of the Concord and Portsmouth railroad and present these resolutions."

"A Broken Idol" played in Manchester on Saturday night.

Do You Suffer from Piles or Hemorrhoids?

Hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, cause untold agony to the victim. If neglected, the condition always grows worse with every attack, until the only recourse is an operation. You may think that you are predisposed to piles, and that nothing you can do will prevent them, but this is not true. The one certain cause of Piles is constipation, and if you will keep your bowels open and regular by taking Smith's Vegetable and Butternut Pills you will not only avoid this painful and dangerous disease, but your whole general health will greatly improve.

A torpid, inactive liver goes hand in hand with constipation. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills are composed of the two great vegetable agents, pineapple for the stomach, liver and gastric secretions, and butternut for the mucous membrane, circulation and bowels, and always give best results—they are Nature's own laxative. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit. You should always keep them on hand. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills.

To Cure Constipation Bilelessness and Sick Headache in a Night, use

SMITH'S PINEAPPLE BUTTERNUT PILLS

SMITH'S For Sick Kidneys BUCHU LITHIA KIDNEY PILLS

NEW CASTLE NEWS

Many Victims of Change of Timetable

Many Visitors Enjoying the Loyal New Castle Autumn

New Castle, Oct. 1.—We welcome brown October, with a moon with a smiling face, and a pilgrim in russet and brings to mind this beautiful October from a favorite poem: "Along the hills and valleys wind the golden rays of autumn light, and the bright sunbeams meet the morning light of God."

The illustrations glow in every corner. One of these days even the New England as the most wonderful season of the year and yesterday. It was a glorious demonstration from the passing summer.

All roads led to New Castle Saturday afternoon by the ultra-fashionable military Theobald-berry wedding. The glittering uniforms of the day and many officers and the elegant costumes of the ladies combined to give the old harbor a very festive appearance.

Mr. Augustin Criss, after a long trip with his mother, has returned to his duties in Lynn.

Mr. Fred Cook has returned from a three months' furlough with relatives in Virginia.

Dr. May of Portsmouth was the guest of friends Sunday.

Mrs. Catherine White is visiting her son in Rochester.

Mr. George B. Taylor and family who have been occupying the Welles cottage since early in June returned to their home in Westfield, N. H., yesterday.

Mr. Frank Gallant and family of Portsmouth were the guests of Evelyn S. White on Sunday.

Miss Helen Woodford, who has been passing the summer at the Barton cottage has returned to her home in New York.

John Frank W. Hackett arrived from Washington yesterday to pass several weeks with his family.

Mrs. Beale Campbell of Portsmouth is visiting Mr. Lorin Hebley and family.

Miss Alice Larkin is the guest of her father at the Fellows cottage.

Mrs. Charles Day, who has been passing the summer at the Osgood cottage, has returned to her home in Cranford.

Mrs. R. E. Poole is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Moulton at their attractive bungalow in Bayville.

Clarence M. White is enjoying his annual vacation. Son is helping the line busy how to leave and reach the island town and is working hard in the endeavor to have a good time.

"To be on the way" is the slogan if you want to catch the 5:15 Queen City. The change in the time table is catching many of our residents asleep at the switch.

For the Tuesday evening dance the horse will leave Portsmouth parade at 8:15 o'clock.

DOVER DOINGS

Dover, Oct. 1.—The semi-annual meeting of the New Hampshire state board, A. O. H., was held at the Broadway hotel Saturday evening. The state president, D. M. Fleming of Manchester, presided. The other officers of the board present were James White of Keene, vice president, J. Crowley of Concord, secretary, Bernard J. Connors of Dover, treasurer, and County President James Collins of Claremont, J. Byrne of Bellows Falls, Vt., J. O'Shea of Nashua, Thomas J. Kittredge of Rochester and George Scott of Portsmouth, P. S. V. P. Lacey and P. S. E. Daniel D. Mahoney of Dover were guests of the board. The board showed a flourishing condition of the order in the state. Sunday the board gave a dinner at the Dover hotel house by citizens 1, 2 and 3 of this city, and an informal reception was held on their return at the hall of division 1 on Central avenue. The board adopted the following resolution: "The state board, A. O. H., of New Hampshire do hereby place upon record their approval of the act of the national officers and pledge them their full allegiance and support in all matters pertaining to the advancement of our order."

There was a bad accident Saturday on the Toland road, in which Harry W. Plaisted, his wife and Frederick F. Pines figured in, and all had a narrow escape from very serious injury. The party was driving down a bad hill near the barn of Austin Randall, when the horse stumbled over a washout in the road and fell, throwing the occupants of the wagon out onto the rocky ledge. Although Mr. Plaisted was thrown some distance, she was not as badly injured as her husband and Mr. Pines, her injuries being confined to bruises about the head. Mr. Pines's back was badly hurt, and one of his hips, while Mr. Plaisted was injured by the back. Dr. S. Young was called and attended the injured people. The horse fell with sufficient force to break its leg, and it had to be killed.

Rev. A. E. Kenyon, pastor of the Washington Street Baptist church, preached the first of a special series of sermons, which will be given in numbers. The subject today was "Religion as an Experiment," the pastor relating many interesting anecdotes and stories to bring out the points in his interesting sermon. Special music was one of the features of the service. The dates and subjects of the other sermons are: Oct. 10, "Woman and Her Opportunity;" Oct. 17, "Helping the Man;" Oct. 24, "Strepitosa;" Oct. 31, "A Wonderful Story in Parable." Sunday was observed as rally day at the Unitarian church, and the pastor, the Rev. W. C. Adams, preached on the subject, "Reality in Religion and How to Secure It."

MRS. STETSON

Expelled Christian Scientist Said to be Biding Her Time

New York, Oct. 1.—The World learned that Augusta E. Stetson, the well-known high priestess of the Christian Science church, is by no means crushed. This fact was clearly demonstrated yesterday in the splendid temple at Central Park west, where a large congregation gathered to witness a religious demonstration.

Many believed that Mrs. Stetson, because of the verdict of the medical board that banishes her from the ranks of Christian Science practitioners, would not attend the meeting. But only one and she, accompanied by a large number of her regular followers, was seen on the north side of the temple, within thirty feet of the altar, but she was bowed in an evening reception, and to all appearances was in particularly good spirits.

Her richly embroidered skirt was white and so were her shoes, and her modish hat was surmounted by nodding ostrich plumes. Her hand held a superb cluster of orchids and lilies of the valley, while at her throat, glinted a diamond studded bow knot, from which hung a miniature of Mary Baker G. Eddy, erected with brilliant.

Mrs. Stetson's unveiled face, although wreathed with smiles, looked just a trifle haggard. As she entered the church and moved slowly toward her seat, she nodded right and left to greeting friends.

There was no special demonstration until the close of the services, when the power and influence of the woman made itself apparent. As she left her pew, a stout woman rushed forward, clasped her in a warm embrace and pressed a kiss upon her cheek. That was the beginning of an impromptu ovation.

Loyal friends crowded around her, pressing her hands, whispering hurried confidences, smiling, laughing and joyous.

It was a strange scene, and one that left no room for doubt that Mrs. Stetson's reign in Christian Science is by no means at an end.

But Mrs. Stetson is saying nothing. All would-be interviewers who called at her home yesterday were politely but firmly told: "Seek whatever information you want in Boston."

The trustees of Mrs. Stetson's church are equally reticent, but it was learned yesterday that a decision has been reached to yield ostensible obedience to the Boston edict.

Mrs. Stetson will accept her humiliation without a word of public complaint, but as a trustee of the church she will keep her organization in line to take full advantage of the conditions certain to arise upon the death of Mrs. Eddy.

THE HORSE CAME BACK

Dover, Oct. 1.—Irving Locke, an East Barrington farmer reported to the police Saturday evening that his horse and buggy, which he left hitched on Franklin square early in the evening, had been taken. A search of the city for the missing rig was without result, so Mr. Locke hired a livery stable man to take him home, a ten mile drive.

Sunday Mr. Locke telephoned the police that his horse was driven into his yard at four o'clock in the morning, and that the party returning the rig got away without being seen. Whether the affair was intended as a practical joke on Mr. Locke, or whether the person who took the rig became frightened and returned it, remains a mystery for Mr. Locke to solve.

A CHURCH CENTENNIAL

The Congregational church in Kensington will next Saturday and Sunday celebrate the 50th anniversary of its reorganization.

Features of the session will be at 11 a. m. Saturday will be histories of the church and Sunday School by their respective clerics. At the afternoon session there will be addresses by neighboring clergyman and former pastor and an account of the reorganization of the church by Mrs. Rosa Akerman. Sunday morning Rev. David Frazar of Manchester will preach the anniversary sermon.

In the evening there will be a very service.

PORTSMOUTH THEATRE,

(Music Hall) PORTSMOUTH, N. H.
F. W. HARTFORD, Manager.

THE HOME OF MOTION PICTURES!

The Best Pictures in the Past, at Present and in Future.

Picture Features:

TRAGEDY AT MENDON

WHOLE WORLD KIN

AFFAIR OF ART

THE LITTLE FATHER

WEALTHY RIVAL

Bob Dunbar, Flying Rings,

C. H. LaDue, Fancy Rope Spinning.

MISS DeCOSTE

Popular Contralto, Pictured Ballads, Singing "Down in Sunshine Alley, Sally," and "I Wonder if I'll Ever Find a Sweetheart."

ADMISSION 10 CENTS.

One Night Only. Friday October 8

THE VITAL AMERICAN DRAMA

THE FINAL

SETTLEMENT

The Dramatic Success of The Season

SPECIAL CAST AND PRODUCTION

Prices 25, 35, 50, & 75c

TELL YOUR DEALER YOU WANT

FRANK JONES

PORTSMOUTH

ALE

For Fifty Years

THIS ALE has been the favorite beverage of New England. Its success has been so great that an effort has been made to imitate THE FRANK JONES PORTSMOUTH ALE.

It is The Taste! You Cannot Be Deceived!

THE FRANK JONES PORTSMOUTH ALE has the true flavor of purity of product, perfection in brewing.

NONE TASTES AS GOOD AS THE GENUINE.

Read The Herald And Keep Posted

TAFT LAYS A CORNERSTONE

He Refers to His Various Church Experiences

RELIGION AND MORALITY

Declared to Be the Cornerstone of Modern Civilization—Less Bitterness of Denominational Dispute in Contest For Righteousness—Those Loyal to Church Are Certain to Be Loyal to Their Country

Portland, Ore., Oct. 4.—President Taft yesterday preached another sermon. The scene, changed from the Mormon Tabernacle at Salt Lake City a week ago to the cornerstone laying of the First Universalist church in East Portland.

The president handled the silver trowel and worked hard to see that the stone was properly adjusted. His apparent earnestness in setting the stone called out great applause from the open air audience.

Mr. Taft attended the morning services at the First Unitarian church in Portland. In the early afternoon he visited St. Mary's Roman Catholic school and made a five-minute speech to the school children.

The line of march followed by the presidential party to East Portland was crowded and there was hand-clapping and cheering all along the way. After the president had been introduced at the cornerstone laying he said:

"I don't know that anyone questions the propriety of my being here and officiating on such an occasion as this, or that any explanation of any sort is called for. But I want to say I believe it to be the duty of the President of the United States to welcome and to suggest every instrument by which the morals and religion of the community may be elevated and maintained. Not long ago I officiated at the cornerstone laying of an orthodox Congregational church in Washington. Then I appeared in the pulpit of a Jewish synagogue at Pittsburgh. But a few days ago I helped lay the cornerstone of a Catholic institution at Helena, Mont.

"And now it is my great pleasure to assist here today in laying the cornerstone of this Universalist church, which, like my own, the Unitarian church, is known as a liberal one. I am glad always to be present at the occasions as these, for I believe the cornerstone of modern civilization must continue to be religion and morality."

The president told some of his experiences with the Catholic church in the Philippines and then said that on the occasion of his visit to Rome he ventured to tell the pope that while in America the sentiment was strong for the separation of church and state, there was nothing in the American government or the American people which opposed the church or its highest development; that in no European country had the Catholic church flourished as it had in America, and that in this country the Catholic church received from the government and state officials only the treatment shown every other denomination.

"I think we have reached the time when the churches are growing together, when there is less bitterness of denominational dispute, and that, no matter what creed we may follow, the churches are beginning to realize that they must stand shoulder to shoulder in the contest for righteousness; that we all stand for the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man."

"I am an optimist. I believe we are much better today than we were fifty years ago, man by man. I believe we are more altruistic and more interested in our fellow man than we have been at any time in the last fifty years.

"No church in this country, however humble it may be, which preaches the doctrine of true religion and true morality, will lack my earnest support to make it more influential whenever opportunity offers."

It was on his way to the cornerstone laying that the president stopped by St. Mary's Catholic school and from the steps of that institution made a brief address to the boys and girls. After congratulating the children on their rosy cheeks and "chubbiness" he said:

"Your church teaches that loyalty to God is the same as fidelity to country and reverence for constituted authority, and so do all good churches. And we can be very certain that those who are loyal to their church are certain to be loyal to their country; that those who are good Catholics are good citizens, just as those who are consistent members of other churches find in the doing of their duty to the churches everything that leads them on to the uplifting of humanity and the observation of all the obligations to the government."

AMERICAN HOPES TO WIN

Seventeen Balloons Start From Zurich

Zurich, Oct. 4.—A beautiful sunny autumn day made the start in the international balloon race for the Gordon Bennett cup a splendid success from every standpoint, and more than 200,000 persons watched the seventeen balloons soar skyward and disappear on the horizon in what is likely to prove a stirring contest to cover the greatest distance.

Edgar W. Mix of Columbus, O., was the sole representative of the United States. He was elated at the prospects as he made a final inspection of his balloon, America II.

"It will be the greatest race on record," he said, "and a real long distance contest in which the best balloon will win. If the southwesterly holds, it will drive us over Southern Russia. We are carrying provisions for three days, but are discarding our mountain garments."

America's chances for victory are placed high, even by the competitors.

FROM THE FAR NORTH

Steamer Arctic Reached 84 Degrees

When She Was Frozen In Father Point, Que., Oct. 4.—The Canadian government steamer Arctic reached here last evening. Captain Bernier refused to talk, saying that he must first report to the minister of marine, but from members of the crew it was learned that the ship had got as far north as 84 degrees on Aug. 19, 1908, and had been frozen in, only being released on Aug. 6 of this year.

Plenty of game was found, including white bear, musk ox, deer, fox and other fur-bearing animals, but no seals, whales or Eskimos were seen.

There was very little snow, the moss being exposed on the island adjacent, on which the Canadian flag was planted. The expedition returned in good health.

COULD NOT REACH BARKING POODLE

Bulldog Goes Mad and Seriously Injures Two Women

Wakefield, Mass., Oct. 4.—A bulldog, angry because he could not reach a barking little poodle in its owner's arms, went mad on Main street Sunday, attacking several persons, two of whom were bitten by the dog. Mrs. Winnie Byrne had both wrists severely lacerated by the infuriated animal, requiring the services of a doctor. Miss Florence Langford was bitten several times in the leg. Other persons received scratches, but no bites, from the animal.

Although a number of men were nearby no effectual attempt was made to quiet the beast until Conductor Dabian jumped from his car and beat the dog away with his switch stick. The animal escaped.

SOLDIER TAKES POISON

Asks Creator's Forgiveness For Ending a Misspent Life

North Adams, Mass., Oct. 4.—Lieutenant O. W. Baird, 28 years old, a recruiting officer in the United States army, committed suicide at his boarding house last night by taking poison. The suicide left a note asking that his father, Dr. W. C. Baird of Beaumont, Tex., be notified, the note closing with the words: "Here goes a misspent life. May God forgive me."

Among the effects of the soldier were found papers which led to the belief that he was in danger of being punished for dissipation and it is believed that this led to his act.

TWO BROTHERS DROWNED

Canoe Capsized as They Were About to Have Their Pictures Taken

Amesbury, Mass., Oct. 4.—While posing in a canoe to have their pictures taken, Joseph Mannhan, aged 34, and his brother Frederick, aged 17, of this city, were capsized and drowned in Lake Gardner as Miss Belle Bailey, a young friend, was about to snap-shot them from the shore.

The young men could not swim, and although the accident occurred close to the bank of the lake, they were unable to get a footing and Miss Bailey was powerless to assist them.

Two Killed in Street Car Wreck
Pittsburg, Oct. 4.—Two men were killed and eight other passengers seriously injured, three of them probably fatally, in a street car accident here. While a car was rounding a corner one of the axles broke. The car upset, the dead and injured being caught in the wreckage.

Stabbing Affray on Dredge
Black Island, N. I., Oct. 4.—An altercation ended in Louis Kjallesen, a dipper-tender on the dredge Newport, receiving a serious stab wound in the abdomen, and William Roberts, cook on the dredge, fleeing from a deputy sheriff and posse.

Centennial Week at St. Louis
St. Louis, Oct. 4.—Centennial week was inaugurated here by the blowing of whistles, ringing of church bells and services in the churches.

MAKES TWELVE-HOUR ADDRESS

Judge Dewey's Great Stunt on Boston Common

WANTS TO BE GOVERNOR

Presents His Case to the Public by Talking on "The Established Religion of the State"—Says Certain Laws Are Being Ignored in Practice of the Day—Claims Right to Call Himself an Indian

Boston, Oct. 4.—Boston Common, which in the course of the last few centuries has been the scene of the efforts of exponents of many and varied creeds and beliefs, probably never saw a more extraordinary feat than yesterday, when for twelve solid hours, with but one intermission of twenty-five minutes for lunch, former Judge Henry P. Dewey, of one of the oldest and most aristocratic families of Boston, talked in an eloquent and finished style upon the "theocratic form of government."

HENRY S. DEWEY.

Judge Dewey attracted much attention on the bench of the municipal courts some years ago by original interpretations of the law; four years ago he ran for mayor of Boston and caused comment by appearing upon the platform attired in evening dress; the past year he sued the Good Government association for $75,000,000 for alleged slander regarding his intentions during his campaign.

A week ago Judge Dewey secured a permit to speak on Boston Common from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sunday upon "The established religion of the state." Having announced that he would be the "theocratic candidate" for governor this fall, Dewey decided upon this means of presenting his case to the public.

At 6 o'clock Sunday morning Dewey took his stand upon the slope at the west of the soldiers' monument. His audience consisted of his brother and one newspaper man. Shortly after a negro was added and half an hour later a policeman. The audience was small up to 8:30, but Dewey talked continuously. At 8:45 the speaker took a twenty-five minutes recess and had lunch at a nearby hotel.

Returning to the Common at 9:10 Dewey again took up his argument with a larger audience and talked without a break, and with no stimulant except one glass of water, until 6 p. m. The audience gradually increased until from 300 to 600 people were in constant attendance to the close.

The speaker declared that the people of the country, especially the lawyers and judiciary, had departed from the right spirit of the constitution and bill of rights of Massachusetts, which distinctly acknowledged a supreme being. He declared the recognized laws of God, the theocratic, unwritten laws, the eternal verities, were being ignored in the practice of the day, and quoted the decisions and practice of Coke, Kent and Blackstone in England, and James Wilson, Daniel Webster and Chief Justice Story in America as embodying the theories he believed in and which today were being lost sight of.

Speaking at length of his ancestors, who, he said, had been in this country 200 years, he declared he considered he had the right and preferred to call himself an "Indian."

The address was clean cut, at times eloquent, and was replete with historical data and classical allusions as emanating from the mind of a highly educated individual. There were few interruptions, and as a whole the audience was courteous and apparently deeply interested.

At the close Dewey declared he felt no inconvenience from having talked continuously for twelve hours, with the possible exception of being a little stiff from having stood so long in one spot.

Newton Loses an Honored Citizen
Newton, Mass., Oct. 4.—Gerrard D. Gilman, for four years a member of the state legislature and for forty-five years a prominent wholesale druggist in Boston, died at his home here, aged 87 years. He was the general consul in New England for the Hawaiian government prior to that country's annexation by the United States.

THE NATIONAL GAME

American League

At St. Louis—St. Louis, 6; Cleveland, 4.	Cleveland, 3; St. Louis, 1.
At Chicago—Detroit, 3; Chicago, 1.	Won. Lost. P. C.
Detroit .....	98 54 .415
Philadelphia .....	95 58 .621
Pittsburgh .....	88 63 .583
Chicago .....	78 74 .513
New York .....	74 77 .490
Cleveland .....	71 82 .463
St. Louis .....	61 85 .407
Washington .....	42 110 .276

National League

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 6; St. Louis, 4.	St. Louis, 3; Cincinnati, 1.
At Chicago—Pittsburg, 4; Chicago, 1.	Won. Lost. P. C.
Pittsburg .....	108 41 .725
Chicago .....	100 48 .676
New York .....	89 59 .601
Cincinnati .....	77 74 .510
Philadelphia .....	72 76 .487
St. Louis .....	53 95 .358
Brooklyn .....	52 95 .354
Boston .....	42 105 .286

WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER

Aged Woman Lies Upon Floor of Her Home For Some Days

Jacksport, Me., Oct. 4.—Mrs. William French, 81 years old, was found last evening at her home on the Castine road in a most pitiable state, having been without food or water since Thursday.

Mrs. French was living alone for a short time before going to Jacksboro to spend the winter with her son. On Thursday, while attempting to pull open a door, the knob gave way and she fell, striking heavily and injuring herself so that she could not rise. She managed to crawl to her bedroom and remained on the floor until she was found by neighbors who had previously supposed that she had gone away.

Although in a very weakened condition it is believed that she will recover.

FLOTILLA MOVES UP HUDSON RIVER

Many Cities and Villages to Share in Celebration

New York, Oct. 4.—The Hudson-Fulton celebration, after a week of pageantry in New York, moved up the Hudson today and for another week the cities lying to the north will vie with each other in doing honor to the memory of the navigator and the inventor.

The Half Moon and the Clermont, with their naval escort, left Poughkeepsie and continued their voyage northward and will stop at Kingston, Catskill, Hudson, Albany and Troy, where elaborate local celebrations have been planned to mark each successive stage of the journey.

Cities and villages along the river are gay with color by day and brilliantly lighted by night and many of them have planned old-home week observances.

EXPLOSION IN MINE

At Least Eight Men Killed and Three Probably Fatally Hurt

Itzly, Wash., Oct. 4.—Eight men are known to have been killed and three perhaps fatally injured in an explosion of gas in the shaft of coal mine No. 4 of the Northwestern Improvement company.

The eleven men were working at the bottom of the shaft. The bodies of the eight known to be dead cannot be recovered, the mine officials say.

When the explosion occurred a column of fire was thrown hundreds of feet into the air, lighting the shaft plant and adjoining buildings. Under the intense heat the hoist of the shaft crumbled and fell. Cinders were blown in all directions, several buildings in parts of the little mining town taking fire.

HEART GOES BACK ON HIM

St. Yves Will Have to Quit the Running Game, According to Doctors

Montreal, Oct. 4.—Henry St. Yves, the French long distance runner, collapsed in the twenty-third mile of a race here. Physicians who examined him declare that his heart is affected and that he probably will be unable to run again.

His opponent, Hans Holmer of Quebec, finished strong, covering the Marathon distance in 2:32:40, a new record if the track is found to measure correctly. Of this there is some doubt. St. Yves was leading by a few yards when he went down.

Shows a Forgiving Spirit

St. Petersburg, Oct. 4.—Lieutenant General Mischonko, former governor-general of Tiflis, has applied to the emperor for a pardon for a private soldier named Kharin, who, on Sept. 8, was sentenced to death for an attempt to kill the general during the maneuvers of the Russian army.

Pope Suspends Audiences

Rome, Oct. 4.—For several days past the pope has been sick, but he continued to see visitors. The symptoms have now become aggravated, indicating a recurrence of the gout. The pope's doctors have insisted upon a complete rest and the audiences have been suspended.

CRUSHED BY ARCTIC FLOES

Dundee Whaler Paradox Lost Off Baffin Land

CREW SAFE AT ST. JOHN'S

Picked Up by Steamer Which Subsequently Meets With Accident—The Adventure Brings Story of Starving Eskimo Who Kills and Eats His Own Offspring, Shooting Neighbors Who Attempted Punishment

St. John's, Oct. 4.—Adventure and tragedy in the icy wastes of the far north formed the burden of the news brought to this port by the Hudson Bay company's steamer Adventure, which arrived with the crew of the lost Dundee whaler, Paradox, and the story of an Eskimo, who was driven to cannibalism by starvation.

The Paradox, one of the fleet of Dundee whalers, met the fate of her companion ship Snowdrop, a year ago, when she was crushed in the merciless jaws of the ice floes off Baffin Land, early in August. The crew, with scanty provisions, made their perilous way over the broken ice towards the mainland, when they were picked up by the Hudson Bay company's steamer Pelican, which brought the whalers to Fort Churchill.

The Pelican herself subsequently struck a rock which destroyed her rudder, and while trying to reach St. John's under jury rig she smashed one blade of her propeller.

The men of Dundee were taken along by the Adventure on her regular fall trip. On board the steamer also were several missionaries, surveyors and prospectors from the northwest country.

The Hudson bay mounted police also report through dispatches brought by the Adventure the cannibalism of a starving Eskimo. The man's fishing and hunting season had been a failure and, driven mad by hunger, he cut the throat of one of his children and then ate the little victim. When the man's neighbors learned of the horrible crime they attacked him according to the primitive law of their race.

The now thoroughly maddened Eskimo fled the shelter of his igloo and from hammocks of ice beat off all assaults, shooting down several of the attacking party and finally escaping into the wilderness of ice. Whether he finally succeeded in reaching some remote village where the news of his crime had not reached, or whether he finally succumbed to starvation, is not known.

WAR NOT YET ENDED

Spaniards May Have Much Bloody Work Ahead of Them in Morocco

Madrid, Oct. 4.—There is an absence of news from the front since General Marina, commander of the Spanish forces at Melilla, opened the offensive Saturday, but the recent resistance of the Moors and the Spanish losses have convinced the government that the war is not yet over.

Following a decision by the cabinet to send a new division to Morocco, Premier Maura announced that he wished to end the campaign as quickly as possible and that therefore Marina would be given all the reinforcements that he needed.

The Moors are reported to be concentrating on three mountains which are almost equally as dangerous of access as Mount Gurgu, and must be dislodged.

GREEKS QUARANTINED

Men Suffering From Smallpox Moved Freely About Fitchburg

Fitchburg, Mass., Oct. 4.—Twenty-six Greeks were quarantined in a local lodging house here because one of their number was found to have been afflicted with a virulent case of smallpox for five days.

The victim is John Spiropolis who came here last Tuesday. He complained of being sick then, but moved around the city until Friday night, when a physician was called. The disease puzzled the physician, who called in the board of health Saturday night, when the man's illness was diagnosed as smallpox.

Thought He Had Killed Wife
New York, Oct. 4.—Enraged at his wife because breakfast was not ready on time, Edward F. Muller, a special detective in the employ of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, shot at her with a revolver and, when he saw her fall, blew out his own brains. His wife was not even scratched by the bullet. She fainted from fright. Muller died almost instantly.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

Two young men, Will Hilton and Frank Chadwick, were killed by a train while crossing the railroad tracks at Wells, Me.

A man believed to be Archibald Hice of Cambridge, Vt., committed suicide in a hotel at Worcester, Mass., by inhaling gas.

The time for the transmission of mail between the east and Seattle will be shortened by a new fast train put on between St. Paul and Seattle.

SOILS NOT WEARING OUT

Those of New England Declared to Be Particularly Productive

Washington, Oct. 4.—Declaring that the world's soils are today a greater storehouse of fertility than they ever were, Professor Whitney, chief of the bureau of soils in the department of agriculture, in a bulletin just issued, takes a stand in direct opposition to many writers who hold that soils are gradually wearing out.

Professor Whitney states that a study of the record for the past forty years will show that the average of crops is increasing. There has been, he says, an increase of two bushels in the average yield of wheat per acre in the past forty years, although the yield of corn has decreased one half bushel.

"The soils of New England have materially increased in yields of corn and wheat during forty years," says the professor, "but what is more startling, they are producing considerably heavier yields than the soils of the Mississippi river states."

FAVOR TRUE TEMPERANCE

But Germans Oppose Laws Which Stop Wine and Beer Drinking

Cincinnati, Oct. 4.—With delegates representing forty-two states present, the National German Alliance was formally welcomed to Ohio and to Cincinnati. Governor Harmon, in welcoming the visiting delegates on behalf of the state, praised the German-Americans of America. Mayor Galvin welcomed the delegates and C. L. Hexamer of Philadelphia, president of the alliance, responded. In his address Hexamer said:

"As devoted citizens of this country, we hold ourselves second to none in our devotion to the cause of true temperance and to all that make for the sanctity of home and decency and order in the state, but we are bitterly opposed to the passage of any law that destroys our rights of personal liberty. The right to drink our wine and our beer we consider an absolute attribute of human liberty as is the right to buy any other food."

WINDS CONSIDERED TOO TREACHEROUS

Aviators Unwilling to Fly From Governor's Island

New York, Oct. 4.—In a wind more treacherous than any airplane can well withstand, Glenn H. Curtiss started out to fly from Governor's Island in New York harbor last evening, but when the aviator got into the air he found the evening breeze still too wild and after a minute alight, during which the airplane tilted at dangerous angles, he came to the ground.

Wilbur Wright, whose contract with the Hudson-Fulton commission requires him to attempt flights when weather conditions permit up to Oct. 9, did not appear on Governor's island Sunday. The treacherous winds of the past week kept both Curtiss and Wright close to the ground, except on Wednesday, when Curtiss made a short flight and Wright made three, during one of which he encircled the statue of Liberty. But on the whole the public saw little aeroplaning during the celebration.

COOK IS WILLING

American Societies May Review His Data Ahead of Danish University

Washington, Oct. 4.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook announced last night, shortly after his arrival from New York to deliver his lecture in this city, that he will acquiesce in the proposal that the University of Copenhagen be asked to waive its claim to a prior examination of his records, so that "American geographic societies and other scientific bodies in this country may be enabled to review his data."

Dr. Cook said he would be satisfied to have the decisions of all these tribunals announced simultaneously.

Whitney Taking a Rest

Manchester, Mass., Oct. 4.—Harry Whitney of New Haven, the millionaire hunter who met Dr. Cook at Elkhound on the return of the explorer from the north, is in Manchester as the guest of friends. Whitney plans to stay here for some days for rest after his long travels.

Efficiency Appreciated

New York, Oct. 4.—Employees of the Interborough Rapid Transit company will receive $25,000 this week, to be distributed as a token of the company's gratitude for their efficient work in handling the unprecedented crowds of the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Suicide in Undertaker's Doorway
Boston, Oct. 4.—Carl A. McKay of Somerville, aged 55, walked into the doorway of an undertaking establishment in this city shortly after midnight and shot himself through the head. He was dead when found.

The Weather

Almanac, Tuesday, Oct. 5.
Sun rises—5:45; sets—5:20.
Moon rises—9:50 p. m.
High water—3:30 a. m.; 4 p. m.
Forecast for New England: Generally fair; continued cool; moderate north winds.

THE COMPANY WITH THE PYRAMID OF CONSECUTIVE YEARS OF PROGRESS

NEW HAMPSHIRE FIRE INSURANCE CO.

300,000,000
2,500,000,000
10,000,000,000
50,000,000,000
100,000,000,000
500,000,000,000
1,000,000,000,000
5,000,000,000,000
10,000,000,000,000
50,000,000,000,000
100,000,000,000,000
500,000,000,000,000
1,000,000,000,000,000
5,000,000,000,000,000
10,000,000,000,000,000
50,000,000,000,000,000
100,000,000,000,000,000
500,000,000,000,000,000
1,000,000,000,000,000,000
5,000,000,000,000,000,000
10,000,000,000,000,000,000
50,000,000,000,000,000,000
100,000,000,000,000,000,000
500,000,000,000,000,000,000
1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
5,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
10,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
50,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
100,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
500,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
5,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
10,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
50,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
100,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
500,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
5,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
10,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
50,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
100,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
500,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
5,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
10,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
50,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
100,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
500,000,000

THE PORTSMOUTH HERALD

Established Sept. 23, 1854.

Published every evening, Sundays and holidays excepted, by the HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Terms, $4.00 a year, when paid in advance; 50 cents a month; 2 cents per copy, delivered in any part of the city, or sent by mail.

Advertising rates reasonable and made known upon application. Communications should be addressed

F. W. HARTFORD, Editor.

TELEPHONES

Editorial ..... 26
Business ..... 37

Entered at the Portsmouth, N. H. postoffice as second-class mail matter.

For PORTSMOUTH and PORTSMOUTH'S INTERESTS

1909	OCTOBER	1909
SUN	TUE	WED
1	2	3
4	5	6
7	8	9
10	11	12
13	14	15
16	17	18
19	20	21
22	23	24
25	26	27
28	29	30
31

MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1909.

TAFT SHIP SUBSIDIES

In his speech at Seattle on Thursday President Taft said: "So inadequate is the American merchant marine today that in selecting auxiliary ships with which to make our navy an instrument in offense or defense or indeed in sending it around the world as a fleet, we have to call on vessels sailing under a foreign flag to carry the coal and to supply the other needs of such a journey. Were we compelled to go to war today our merchant marine lacks altogether a sufficient tonnage of auxiliary unarmed ships absolutely necessary to the proper operation of the navy, and were war to come on we should have to purchase such vessels from foreign countries, and this might be, under the laws governing neutrals, almost difficult."

Mr. Taft goes on to say: "The trade between the Eastern ports of the United States and South America is a most valuable trade and now equals something like $250,000,000, but European nations, appreciating the growing character of this trade, have by subsidies and other means of encouragement so increased vessels from Europe to the ports of South America as visibly to affect the proportion of trade which is coming to the United States by a very limited service of a direct character between New York and southern ports. I need not tell you of the inadequacy of the American shipping marine on the Pacific coast and the growing power for commercial powers in this regard of the empire of Japan. Japan is one of the most active and generous countries in the matter of subsidies to its merchant marine that we have and the effect is only too visible in an examination of the statistics."

Then he gave this outline of the ship subsidy idea: "For this reason it seems to me that there is no subject to which congress can better devote its attention in the coming session than the passage of a bill which shall encourage our merchant marine in such a way as to establish American lines directly between New York and other Eastern ports, and South American ports, and between our Pacific coast ports and the Orient and Philippines. We can earn a profit from our foreign mails of from $5,000,000 to $8,000,000 a year. The application of that amount would be quite sufficient to put on a satisfactory basis two or three Oriental lines and several lines from the East to South America. Of course we are familiar with the argument that this would be contributing to private companies out of the treasury fund of the United States, but we are thus contributing in various ways on similar principles in effect by our protective tariff law, by our river and harbor bills and by our reclamation service. We are not putting money in the pockets of the ship owners, but are giving them money with which they can compete for a reasonable profit only with the merchant marine of the world. From my observations, I think the country is ready now to try such a law and to witness its effects upon the foreign trade of the United States. If it is successful, experience will show how the policy can best be expanded and enlarged, and the American commercial flag be made to wave on the seas as it did before the Civil war. It is true that our foreign trade is great and increasing without the merchant marine. But a merchant marine would much enhance the opportunities for extending trade."

There is a great deal of meat in those arguments—the need for a merchant fleet which in time of war can be seized by right of eminent domain and made auxiliary to the navy, and the possibility of using the ocean mail revenues for the upbuilding of such a fleet. This is likely to be received with less disfavor than previous ship subsidy schemes.

RELIGIOUS PROGRESSION

Rev. Alfred Gooding, Preaches on Dr. Eliot's Statement

The Rev. Alfred Gooding preached a notable sermon at the Unitarian church yesterday morning on "Religious Progression." It being a consideration of President Eliot's address on "The Religion of the Future." A large congregation was present and gave every word the closest attention.

The text was taken from the familiar 27th verse of the 10th chapter of Luke: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself."

The sermon dealt with the subject as it appeared in full in the Harvard Theological Review for October, and comprehensive questions were read by the minister. Some of the general misunderstandings of the intent of the statement were spoken of, for instance the idea of a "new" religion, or the possibility of such a declaration being complete, or even wholly satisfactory in its scope.

Mr. Gooding made no unreserved approval of all of the much discussed views of Dr. Eliot, but he did believe that the conclusions were a most remarkable and helpful summary of what may be expected from the development of pure religious experiences.

Mr. Gooding did emphasize the essential that "The true end of all religious and philosophy is to teach man to serve his fellow man," and that there could be no higher purpose of thought than to foster the love of truth.

A fine expression of the great service of Dr. Eliot as a Unitarian lay preacher was included in the first of the sermon.

In addition to the attraction of the scholarly, practical sermons of the minister of this church, the excellent quartet assists to make the service a delight to an increasing number of attendants. This quartet is composed of Mr. Charles W. Gray, bass, Mr. Ralph Parker, tenor, Mrs. Mary E. Gray, soprano and Mrs. Oliver Priest alto.

RAILROAD NOTES

Winter schedule in operation today.

Conductor Henry Toner has been transferred to his old run on trains 18 and 75 between this city and Boston.

C. H. Piper, a former night watchman, has taken the place of John O'Brien as day watchman during his leave of absence of two months.

William Brackett of the Conway branch has bid off the place of conductor on the York Harbor and Beach branch.

Ned McCarthy of the depot cafe started today on a vacation of two weeks.

Conductor Frank Burke of the 815 morning train, Sanbornville to Boston, is enjoying a vacation for a month and Baggage Master Brown is in charge of his run.

SPITTING NUISANCE

Hawking and Spitting is Caused by Catarrh Germs

If the local authorities want to stop the disgusting habit of spitting mucus on the sidewalks, they had better instruct the people as to the best method of killing the catarrh germs and curing catarrh.

You can easily tell by reading the symptoms below whether you have catarrh or not.

Offensive breath, frequent sneezing, discharge from nose, stoppage of the nose, huskiness of the voice, tickling in throat, droppings in throat, a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, low spirited at times raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.

Goodwin E. Philbrick has a reliable remedy (money back if it fails), for catarrh, called Hyomel, which is a vaporized air so antiseptic that when it is breathed over the inflamed and germ-infested membrane it kills all germ life and cures catarrh.

The price, including hard rubber inhaler, is only $1.00 and money back if it doesn't cure. Extra bottles, 50 cents.

"I have tried almost every catarrh cure on the market without benefit. Have been using Hyomel for one week and feel like a new man already."—Wm. V. Goode, New York, Oct. 21, 1909.

MI-ONA
Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, soothes stomach, belching, and cures all stomach diseases or money back. Large box of tablets 60 cents. Druggists in all towns.

A TIMLEY TOPIC

HARRY FELLOWS
In Denver Field and Farm

Halter

Breaking.

A VERY troublesome habit is that of halter breaking. Once a horse finds it can break the halter it is everlasting at the job. To cure the habit is not nearly so easy as to prevent the horse from learning it. Horses that are inclined to pull and break their halters when fastened in the stall have often been cured in the following way: Two straps are lightly attached to a rope which passes through a ring fastened in the end of the halter strap. The halter strap passes through a ring in the stall. If a horse endeavors to go backwards the greater is the tendency to draw the forelegs from under the animal. A few attempts will cure even the worst halter puller.

Another simple and effective method is worked out by the use of a long rope. One end of the rope is first attached to the manger and is then threaded through the lower ring in the halter, back between the front legs then over the back and down under the horse, between the front legs again and up through the ring to the other end and then tied to the halter. The halter breaker will soon find a surprise in store when it leans back against the rope as the pull comes on its own back instead of on the rope.

P. A. C.
WON FROM
ELKS

The P. A. C. defeated the Elks in the last baseball game of the season on Saturday afternoon at the North playgrounds. Walter Woods of the Buffalo team pitched for the P. A. C., and while he was hit hard he was effective when needed, and then won the game with a long drive. Young Heffernan pitched a great game for the Elks and only allowed six hits, but he did not get the support that he deserved. He was effective and struck out twelve men, while Walter Woods only had nine to his credit, but Walter Woods played a star fielding game and showed his old-time form. Jewell who caught Woods, played a fine game, and the rest of the team gave good support. For the Elks Hanson, other than one error, played a good game and Cragen was fast.

The score:

Portsmouth A. C.
	bb	po	a	e
G. Woods, 2b.....	2	4	3	0
Walter Woods, p.....	1	2	0	0
Mates, cf.....	1	0	1	0
Locke, ss.....	2	1	3	0
Tredick, 3b.....	0	1	1	0
W. Lynskey, lf.....	0	0	0	0
Jewell, c.....	0	0	0	0
Hershey, lb.....	0	10	0	1
W. Woods rf.....	0	0	1	1

Totals ..... 6 27 16 2
Portsmouth Elks.

	bb	po	a	e
Hanson, ss.....	1	0	4	1
Bunker, lb.....	2	8	0	0
Cragen, 2b.....	1	3	4	1
Able, lf.....	2	2	0	0
Paul, 3b.....	2	2	0	1
T. Lynskey, cf.....	2	0	2	2
McWilliam, rf.....	1	0	1	0
Barrett, c.....	1	0	1	0
Heffernan, p.....	1	0	1	0

Totals ..... 13 25 12 6

"One out when winning run was scored.

innings ..... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
P. A. C. .... 2 0 1 0 0 4 0 1—8
Elks ..... 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 0—7

Runs made, by G. Woods, Walter Woods 3, Mates 2, W. Woods Hanson, Cragen, Able, McWilliams, Barrett, Heffernan 2, Two-base hits, G. Woods, Walter Woods, Able 2, T. Lynskey, Heffernan, Stated bases, G. Woods 2, Walter Woods 3, Mates, W. Woods, T. Lynskey, McWilliams 2. Base on balls, Heffernan. Struck out, by Walter Woods 9, by Heffernan 12. Sacrifice hits, Heffernan, Hanson. Double plays, Hanson to Cragen to Bunker. Hit by pitched ball, G. Woods. Umpire, W. Brackett. Time 1h, 35m.

THE WATER FRONT

Port of Portsmouth, Oct. 4.

Latest Arrivals.

United States lighthouse steamer

Lake, Sterling, Portland.

Steam lighter Hercules, Rowe,

Portland.

Steam lighter Leviathan, Bolton,

Portland.

Schooner Mary E. Palmer, Pinkham, Newport News, Sept. 18, with 2400 tons of coal to the Portsmouth

Coal company.

Schooner Alice M. Colburn, Brandenberg, Newport News, Sept. 20, with 2500 tons of coal to the Portsmouth Coal company.

Schooner Mary E. Morse, Knowlton, Philadelphia Sept. 1, with 1000 tons of coal to the Portsmouth Coal company.

Schooner M. H. Read, Grant, Boston for Stockton, Me.

Tug Pledmont, Lee, Baltimore, towing barges No. 7 with 1000 tons of coal to the Rockingham Light, and

T. W. company, and No. 10, with 1000 tons to the Portsmouth Coal company; latter from Washington, D. C.

Tug Portsmouth, Perkins, Boston,

towing barges Berwick and P. N. Co.

No. 10, for York.

Tug Patience, Wilkin, Portland,

towing barges Lincoln for Philadelphia.

Tug Piscataqua, Holt, York, Me.,

light.

Steam yacht Satilla, J. C. Strawbridge owner, Philadelphia for Camden, Me.

Sailed.

United States steamer Lilac, Portland.

Steam yacht Satilla, Camden.

Schooner Ned P. Walker, Newark,

N. J.

Tug Portsmouth, towing barges

Greenland, P. N. Co. No. 10 and P.

N. Co. No. 12, Boston.

Tug Piscataqua, towing barges Berwick and P. N. Co. No. 10, York.

Tug Patience, towing barges Trevorton and Lincoln, Philadelphia.

BAPTIST MEN'S CLASSES

The men's class of the Middle

Street Baptist church on Sunday

elected these officers:

President, Harry W. Vennard.

Vice President, Amos O. Bennett.

Secretary-Treasurer, Harold Gardner.

Sunday travel on trains was light yesterday.

A Scientific Remedy

THAT RELIEVES EVERY FORM OF

SKIN TROUBLE

Doctors are often sorely perplexed in determining what to call many of the common diseases of the skin. One authority says there are at least twenty different forms of eczema alone, and it is a general practice to call it "eczema" whenever there is a scaly crust upon the skin, accompanied by itching. Just what causes this terribly annoying and stubborn disease would be difficult to say. The truth is that skin diseases generally have been very little understood. For years they were thought to be blood disorders. A short time ago, there was discovered a new compound called Cadum, which, when applied externally, effected the most astonishing results in all forms of eczema and other skin troubles of a minor kind. This proved that eczema is not the result of disordered blood, but is a skin disease beyond question. Before the discovery of Cadum other external remedies without number were used, but proved of value only where the attack was mild and recent. It is less than one year since Cadum was discovered, and to that time cures almost beyond belief have been brought about, in not only deep seated cases of eczema, but in all forms of skin troubles as well. If you could have seen some of the horribly disfigured and blotchy faces and bodies that Cadum has cleared up and restored to a perfectly healthy condition, you would think the day of miracles had returned, but there is no miracle about Cadum whatever. It is a scientific remedy discovered after long study of skin diseases, and it is most reassuring to be told that it contains no poisonous substances. It is for children and adults, and its remarkable virtues are felt after the first application. The itching stops at once and the healing process is rapid and unmistakable. Cadum is sold by druggists at 10c and 25c a box. It is for pimples, rash, blotches, blackheads, chafings, rough, scaly skin, ringworm, herpes, acne, and other troubles of that kind.

KITTERY LETTER

(Continued from page one.)

strong one; A. Seaward, r. o. Wilson, r. t. Gunnison, r. g. A. Pruett, c. Brooks, l. g. Blake, l. t. Houghton, l. e. Phillips, q. b. B. Pruett, l. h. b. Rosalter, r. h. b. C. Seaward, l. b. Burton W. Sawyer returned today from a trip to New York and Fall River, during which he witnessed the Hudson-Rulton celebration.

Mrs. Henry Van Dyke today closed her cottage on Garrison Island and returned to her home in Princeton, N. J. for the winter.

Capt. Thomas F. Crawford of the sloop "Mystic Belle" picked up a lobster buoy outside Saturday marked "A Nickerson, Shelbourne, N. S." The buoy had apparently not been long in the water, so had covered its 300 mile journey in quick time.

Mrs. Thomas Billings was operated on at the Portsmouth Cottage hospital by Dr. J. D. Carv Saturday and is reported as doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Keen and family passed Sunday in Brixham.

A meeting of the Kittery Point fire department will be held this evening in Golden Cross hall.

Charles E. Totman of South Berwick was a visitor here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Tobey Sr. who have been visiting their daughter at North Hampton for some time past, will remain there through the winter.

Edward Austin of Portsmouth was in town Sunday visiting friends.

William Dean Howells and his daughter, Miss Mildred were expected to arrive in New York Sunday from Carlsbad. They will come here later.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bayliss, who have been visiting Mrs. Bayliss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth Seaward of Tenney's Hill, have returned to their home in Chelsea, Mass.

The Mitchell school football team of Kittery Point defeated Taine academy team of Kittery on Saturday afternoon.

Our Customers Are Fashion's Friends

The Best Styles at Moderate Cost

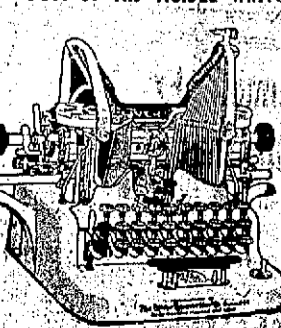

Our STEIN-BLOCH CLOTHES for the Fall and Winter, represent a thorough and serious consideration of the task of providing you, at a moderate cost, with appropriate, well-fitting suits for all occasions.

The specialists of this house expend large sums annually in sifting the good styles from the bad.

The resources of the whole Stein-Bloch organization are then bent to reproduce these styles to fit every type of American man. Try on these clothes—see them fit you.

HENRY PEYSER & SON,
Selling the Togs of the Period.

THE BEST OF THE VISIBLE WRITERS

SOLD ON EASY TERMS BY

J. E. Dimick, Jr., 9 Tanner St.

Typewriters, Ball and Supplies of ALL kinds.

STEAMSHIPS

To Bermuda

700 Miles in Atlantic Ocean.

Round Trip $30 and Up.

By the New York Screw Steamship "Bermuda" (5000 Tons) in 10 days. Most attractive nine-day autumn trip. Good fishing, sea bathing, sailing and bicycling. Bermuda is now in its glory, whole hordes of flowers in bloom.

For illustrated pamphlets and rates, address

A. R. OUTERBRIDGE &amp; CO.,

Agts. Quebec B. S. Co., Ltd., 39 Broadway, New York, ARTHUR ABELIN, Secretary, Quebec,

Canada, or Local Agent.

QUEEN OF THE SEA ROUTES

Merchants' and Miners' Trans. Co.

Steamship Lines.

From BOSTON and PROVIDENCE

to

NORFOLK, NEWPORT NEWS and

BALTIMORE

BOSTON to PHILADELPHIA

Most popular route to Atlantic City

Jersey Coast Resorts, Old Point Comfort, Washington and the South and West.

Accommodations and Cuisine unsurpassed. Send for booklet.

James Barry Agt. C. H. Maynard Agt.

Providence, R. I. Boston, Mass.

W. P. Turner, P. T. M.

General Offices, Baltimore, Md.

"Finest Coastwise trips in the World."

Insurance of Every Description.

Agency Established 1863

Telephone 627.

North British &amp; Mercantile Fire Insurance Company

OF LONDON AND EDINBURGH.

Losses Paid Over 159,000,000

Dollars.

Liabilities $90,000,000.

Established 1809; Centennial Year.

Every policy-holder of this Company is guaranteed protection against fire loss (not exceeding the sum named in policy) by the enormous fire assets and capital of the Company, only a small portion of which, as per statement above, are held in this country. We pay prompt losses in full. I represent other equally good Fire Insurance Companies in this Agency.

E. P. STODDARD,

Over Grace's Drug

Store

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

LOST?

anything of value this week? Then the very best effort you can make to bring about its return is to use a

"LOST & FOUND" advertisement in the

Portsmouth Evening Herald

BURGLARY INSURANCE

FOR STORES AND DWELLINGS.

RATES LOW.

John Sise &amp; Co.,

NO. 3 MARKET SQUARE.

Grand Union Hotel

Opp. Grand Central Station, New York City

Rooms, $1.00 a Day

AND UPWARD

Shower and Bath from

How Would Your Family Fare If They Lost You?

Could they live in as good a house? Could they wear as good clothes? Could the children stay at school? If you cannot say yes to all of these questions, your family need the protection of Life Insurance. They have a right to demand that you become insured. Secure this protection in

The Prudential

Total Payments to Policyholders Since Organization, Plus Amount Held at Interest to Their Credit,

Over 313 Million Dollars

Ordinary and Industrial policies.
Ages 1 to 70.
Both sexes.
Amounts, $15 to $100,000.

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE CO. OF AMERICA

Incorporated as a Stock Company by the State of New Jersey

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President

HOME OFFICE, NEWARK, N. J.

Agents Wanted to Write Industrial and Ordinary Life Insurance Good Income—Promotion—Best Opportunities—Now!

BRANCH OFFICE IN PORTSMOUTH:

E. O. RODIER, AGENCY ORGANIZER, - CONGRESS & HIGH STREETS

W. T. Griffin, Asst. Supt. AGENTS: W. B. Mathes, G. K. Sanborn, F. Gardner, W. McEvoy, S. S. Smith, G. W. E. Clarke, J. H. Page. Wm. Craig, Speci Agent. Ordinary Dept., 1 Lovell St., E. F. Dixon, Special Agent. Ordinary Dept.

Prudential Agents are now canvassing in this vicinity.
They have a most vital story to tell of how Life Insurance has saved the home, protected the widow, and educated the children. Let them tell it to you.

A New Hotel at the Old Stand

$250,000 has just been spent Remodeling, Refurnishing, and Redecorating the

HOTEL EMPIRE

Broadway, Empire Square & 63d St.
NEW YORK CITY.

Restaurant and Service Under

Splendid Location at Modern Improvement

All surface carcases or transfer to door

Subway and "L" stations 2 minutes

Hotel fronting on three streets

Electric Clocks, Telephones and Automatic Lighting Devices in every room

Moderate Rates
MUNIC

W. Johnson Quinn, Proprietor
Send for guide of New York-Free

PORTSMOUTH

HIGH DEFEATED AT MANCHESTER

Local Team Has Hard Luck and Two Men Badly Injured.

The local high school football team went to Manchester on Saturday and lost by a score of 17 to 0 to the Manchester high team, which outplayed and outplayed the locals from the start. The game was rough at times and the result was that two of Portsmouth's team were completely knocked out. James McCarthy, while he played through the entire game, was badly injured, and he will not play any more football this season. His right shoulder was dislocated and the ligament torn in the first half of the game, and while he was greatly handicapped he insisted on playing the game out. John McCarthy was injured in the first half, but recovered so that he played in the second half, when he was knocked out completely and later taken to the hospital and oxygen administered before he could be brought around.

The local team in the first half were down for the Manchester team, but in the second half they took on a decided brace and held the heavy hill town team down in goal shape. The local team had two full teams and they played a great many fresh players, as soon as one was fagged he was pulled out and a fresh one played. The result was that with their weight they were the victors down. Not but what Manchester great bunch of material and with great bunch of material and with good coaching and enough men, so that everybody had to fight for a place.

There was a change in the lineup of the local eleven Pilgrim going to Manchester, where he played a good game, and Smart back to his old position at tackle. Jim McCarthy was at end, and he played a star game, despite his injuries. Leavitt played a good game at full-back, and Boona at half.

The following is the summary:
Manchester H. S. Portsmouth H. S.
C. Reed, k...re, Jas. McCarthy
Kiddier, R...rt, John McCarthy
Sullivan, Ig...rg, Leary
Johnson, c...c, Hennessy
Clarke, rg...lg, Faller
Therrien, rg...lg, Leighton Teehan, rt...rt, Smart Woodcock, rt
Scott, re...le, McDonald
Matthews, re
Lindquist, pb...pb, Pilgrim
Worcester, pb
Brandollar, lbh...rbh, Boona
Morrell, lbh
H. Reed, rbh...lbh, Pattee lbh, Gray
Woodruff, lbh...lbh, Leavitt
Campbell, lbh

Score, Manchester H. S. 17, Touchdowns, Brandollar, 2 Campbell. Goals from touchdowns, Brandollar, H. Reed, Umpire, Atwood. Referee, Taggart. Field Judge, Richards. Lineamen, Eastman and Leighton. Time: 15 min. halves.

CAN BAR AUTOS

Augusta, Me., Oct. 4.—The grid-

canco, excluding automobiles from the streets of Bar Harbor, the fashionable summer resort, passed by the town government, is declared unconstitutional by the law court, the highest tribunal in Maine, in a verdict handed down Saturday in the celebrated Bar Harbor automobile case.

WEAVER WON THE WAGER

Made Forty-two Towns in one Week's Time.

Hiram Weaver, in a remarkable feat, who started last Monday with a traveling salesman on a wager that he could make forty-two towns in New Hampshire in a week, and soon an hour in each town, completed his wager at six o'clock Saturday night at Keene N. H., and returned home Sunday. He went into Boston from Keene last night, making 240 miles during the day. In all he traveled from one end of the state to the other in the first three days with hard weather conditions.

Messrs. William Cullen, Thomas Quinn, Wesley Ham and Lawrence N. Wright of this city witnessed the Manchester and Portsmouth high school football game at Manchester on Saturday.

MILITARY COMPANIES HAVE OUTING IN DOVER

The first field day of the Strafford guards, New Hampshire's oldest military company, now the fourth company of the coast artillery corps, was held on Saturday, the main features being the parade and a 12-mile race.

The guards had as guests the 2d company, C. A. C. of Exeter, and were disappointed at the non-arrival of the Portsmouth and Laconia companies, which had also been invited. The parade of the principal streets took place in the fore noon.

The column, comprising 100 men, was commanded by Capt. Frank W. Butler with 1st Lieut. Fred T. Harrison of Portsmouth adjutant. The riders were 1st Sergt. William Drew and Private James Cassidy. The parade was headed by Emery's military band. Dinner was served in the hall of the Albuquerque Rangers and at 1:30 electric cars were taken to Granite state park, where the sports were held.

The events run off were the 100-yard and 200-yard dashes, the mile run, the 12-mile race and the hurdles. A half dozen minor events including a tug of war were omitted because of darkness.

G. F. McAlpine and Arthur Teeri both of Durham, the latter a state college student, outclassed the rest in the long run, finishing in an exciting sprint a half mile ahead of the nearest contestant. The time of McAlpine the winner, was 17m., 17m. and 43 1/2 seconds. His best mile was the third in 6m., 7s. The races were on the mile track. The summary:

100-yard dash—Won by G. H. Mitchell of Portsmouth, Napoleon Fichette of Dover second. Time 12 2/5s.
220-yard dash—Won by J. H. Barrows of Dover, Mitchell of Portsmouth second. Time not taken.

One-mile run—Won by Patrick McManus of Exeter, J. Clark of Dover second, Pitcher third. Time 6m., 12s.
12-mile run—G. F. McAlpine of Durham 17m., 43 1/2s. Arthur Teeri of Durham 17m., 44s. Moses Dowdall of Portsmouth 17m., 20m., 20s. Michael Dillon of Dover 17m., 20m. F. McAdam of Dover dropped out at the end of the 11th mile and David J. Fleming of Rochester, and John Libby of Rye Beach dropped out in the 7th mile.

N. H. LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

The New Hampshire Library association will hold a state meeting at Franklin on Oct. 14. The morning session will be of practical benefit to library workers and at the afternoon session J. Randolph Coolidge of Boston will speak on "Culture versus Efficiency" from the Librarian's standpoint.

There was but a single drunk registered at the police station on Saturday night and Sunday.

H. W. NICKERSON,

Undertaker and Licensed Embalmer,

Office - - 5 Daniel Street,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

Residence 9 Miller Avenue,

Telephone at Office and Residence.

Callous the bowels with harsh cathartics, and you'll need physic always. Help them gently, with candy Cascarets, and you'll need them rarely. Once learn the difference and you'll never take a harsher laxative than these.

Yeast-poor box, 10 cents—at drug-stores.
Solely now use a million boxes monthly.

PACIFIC COAST

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY
LOW COLONIST FARES

Sept. 14th to Oct. 14th
Special Round Trip Rate until Sept. 20 Endorsed Tourist Card from Boston weekly, from Montreal daily.

Write us giving destination and we will furnish full details of fares and routes.

F. R. PERRY

1st. Pass. Agt., CAN. PAC. RY
421 Washington St., Boston.

George A. Jackson, CARPENTER

AND BUILDER,
No. 6 Dearborn Street.

Jobbing of all kinds promptly furnished to.

FOR SALE

In Kittery. Seven-room House, 1 1/2 acres of land, by river, apple and other fruit trees, town water in house, large barn, on line of trolley.
Price $1250, small amount down and balance same as rent. Place is rented at $10.

Real Estate Office

Geo. O. Athorne, Kittery, Me.
Tel. Office 351-13. Residence 622

MEN AND WOMEN.
Ten Big 4s for unusual discharge, inflammation, irritation or ulceration of delicate membranes.
Painless, and not irrita-gent or injurious.
Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 2 bottles $2.25.
Circulars sent on request.

TIME TABLE ATLANTIC SHORE
LINE RAILWAYChange of Time September 7, 1909—Full Schedule.On and after Tuesday, Sept. 7, 1909, the following service will be discontinued:Cars leaving Biddeford 30 minutes after the hour.Cars leaving Town House for Biddeford on the hour.Cars leaving Town House for York Beach and Portsmouth on the hour.Cars leaving Ogunquit at 5:47 a. m. for Biddeford.Cars Eastbound leaving York Beach at 20 minutes before the hour.Cars Westbound leaving York Beach at 20 minutes after the hour.Cars leaving Portsmouth Ferry for York Beach, Biddeford, Plover and South Berwick at 20 minutes after the hour.Cars leaving South Berwick Junction for Ferry at 5:40 a. m.Cars leaving Dover for Portsmouth, 30 minutes after the hour.Except as noted above, schedule will be same as timetable effective June 22, 1908.

Subject to change without notice.

ATLANTIC SHORE LINE R. R.

NAVY YARD FERRY TIME TABLE

Leaves Navy Yard—8:20, 8:35, 9:15,
10:00, 10:30, 11:15, 11:45 a. m.; 1:35,
2:15, 2:45, 4:00, 4:20, 4:40, 5:00, 6:00.Arrives Portsmouth—10:00, 10:15 a.
m.; 2:15, 2:30 p. m. Holidays—3:30, 10:30, 11:30 a. m.Leaves Portsmouth—8:25, 8:45, 9:30, 10:15, 11:00, 11:30 a. m.; 12:15,
1:45, 2:30, 3:30, 4:10, 4:35, 4:55, 5:40, 6:10, 7:00 p. m. Sundays—10:07
a. m.; 12:05, 12:25, 12:45 p. m. Holdays—10:00, 11:00 a. m.; 12:00 p. m.

*May 1 to October 15.

[Wednesdays and Saturdays.

COMM. P. M. DOWD.

Captain of the Yard.

Approved: CAPT. P. A. WILNER.

Commandant.

PORTSMOUTH & EXETER ST.
RY. CO.

Time Table in Effect July 1.

On and after Thursday, July 1, cars leave Portsmouth Plains for Exeter at 15 minutes past each hour. First car at 7:15 a. m.; last car at 10:15 a. m.Cars leave Market Square at 5 minutes past the hour.Leave Exeter for Portsmouth Plains at 15 minutes past each hour.
First car at 7:15 a. m.; last car at 10:15 p. m.

For details see summer schedules.

Thomas E. Call &amp; Son

DEALERS IN

EASTERN AND WESTERN

LUMBER

Shingles, Clapboards,

Pickets, Etc.,

For Cash at Lowest Market

Prices.

135 Market St.,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

FOR SALE

At Newington, N. H.

FARM OF 10

ACRES.

Dwelling, Carriage House and Stable. Buildings in excellent condition. Price low.

G. E. TRAFTON,

Real Estate Agent, Portsmouth.

Home For Sale.

The Pine Summer Cottage at

New Castle of the late Mrs. P. W.

Ham of Portsmouth, formerly called the Davidson Cottage. It is situated on the river front at the foot of Steamboat Lane. Inquire of

W. E. MARVIN, TRUSTEE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

There was no complaint about Sunday's weather condition for those who wished to go out. It was ideal for a trip through the country.

Look in Portsmouth's "Show Window"

FOR SALE, WANTED, TO LET, LOST, FOUND, ETC., INSERTED

ONE CENT A WORD EACH INSERTION

3 LINES 1 WEEK FOR 40 CENTS

WANTED

AT ONCE—Reliable representative in this vicinity to look after renewals and new subscriptions, part of whole time, for the fastest growing magazine in America. Liberal salary and commissions. Appointments now being made. Write immediately to Director of Circulation, Hampton's Magazine, 66 West 25th St., New York City, 02,45,6,7,8WANTED—At once, carpenters for Eastern Construction Company, at Portsmouth Coal Co. c-h,2f,540WANTED—Young men to learn automobile business by mail and prepare for positions as chauffeurs and repair men. We make you export in ten weeks; assist you to secure position. Big pay; work pleasant; demand for men great; reasonable; write for particulars and sample lesson. Empire Automobile Institute, Rochester, N. Y. 17a,25WANTED—A Christian Protestant working housekeeper. Address J.
this office, stating wages expected.
S23,he,31

TO LET

TO LET—Seven room tenement with all modern improvements. Inquire of Rufus Wood, 29 Congress St.
S30,he,1wTO LET—8-room, furnished house, in city, modern conveniences. Tel.
298-5. S27,he,1fTO LET—Two connecting rooms or single rooms, furnished, centrally located. Handy to table board.
Address F., care this office.
S27,he,1fTO RENT—Two rooms all modern improvements, at 12 Union street.
c-h,1f,511TO LET—Stores and storage for furniture etc. Apply to H. A. Clark & Co., Commercial WharfTO LET—House No. 9 Wilmot street, nine rooms and bath, with electric light. Apply to Benj. F. Webster. S9,he,1fTO LET—Tenement 7 rooms, 28 Flea street, in excellent condition, newly painted and papered. Apply Chronicle Office. c-h,1f,au,27TO LET—A nicely furnished front room at 35 Richards avenue. S22,1f

FOR SALE

IF YOU WANT to buy a good barness and buy at a low price, call and look our stock over. Light and heavy harnesses of all kinds, blankets, whips, metal polishers, sponges, colic cure, worm medicine, and gall cure. Rufus Wood, 29 Congress St. S30,he,1wFOR SALE—Beautiful summer bungalow. The fine summer cottage of Mrs. P. W. Ham, New Castle, formerly called the Davidson cottage. It is situated on the river front at the foot of Steamboat Lane. Inquire of W. E. Marvin, Trustee, Portsmouth. Jy2,he,1fFOR SALE—Vault Door—In a garage doors and windows in N. M.
& Traders Bank Bldg. Inquire this office. Jy20,he,1fLARGE COUNTER—Formerly used in National Mechanics & Traders Bank can be had at a bargain. Inquire at this office. Jy20,he,1fDUMAS AUTO GARAGE at 15 & 17 Prospect St., Manchester, N. H., for sale or lease on easy terms to right party. This garage is the oldest one in the city, has room for thirty machines, good repair shop with tools, steam heat, etc.
Proprietor has other business, and requires his whole attention for the reason for selling. Good auto agency goes with sale or lease.
Address A. B. Dumas, Jeweler, 1187 Elm St. A26,1fTO RENT—A house on Newmarket street, Kittery. Apply to Jessie E. Fernald, Kittery, Maine. S13,1fFOR SALE—Electric motor, one horse power. Inquire at this office.FURNISHED Rooms to let, all modern improvements. Apply to Mrs.
Richard Barrett, No. 9 Hancock street. c-h,1fFOR SALE—Large bank desk formerly used at Portsmouth Savings bank
Inquire at this office.FOR RENT—2 Shemie St., 14; Bow
St., 13; 9 1/2 Elm St., 12; 21
Vaughan St., 12; 5 Cass St., 10;
65 Marcy St., 7; 3 Pickering St.,
5 Butler and Marshall 3 Market
St. S21,he,1f

MISCELLANEOUS

ASHES FOR FUEL—Worthless ashes made to burn like magic. $1 Moose product saves $4 coal. $10 case profits to agents. Exclusive agencies given. 50,000 cans sold in N. E. Guaranteed harmless and efficient. Secure territory now.
Fine income can be built. Trial can express paid $30 in stamps.
Write for booklet and terms. Money back if not satisfied. M. P.
Sales Co., Boston, Mass. h-2, c,64LODGES and Church societies furnished with moving picture shows at short notice. Apply to Manager Music Hall.SIGNS—Some large and small signs that can be repainted to suit can be had at a bargain. Inquire at this office.MOVING PICTURE SHOWS For clubs and private parties furnished at short notice. Apply to Manager Music Hall.PLACARDS—For Sale, To Let, Furnished Rooms, etc. can be had at this office.NORTH POLE—discovered by Americans. Cook's own story and Peary's expedition. Of thrilling interest. Going like wild fire. Cost 10 cents. Big terms. Act quick. ZIEG-LER CO., Fourth Street Philadelphia. c,3f,02,5,7

LOST

LOST—On Thursday, Sept 23, from an automobile going from B. & M. station to Dover, a gentleman's dark cravenette overcoat. Finder please return to this office. S211f

FOUND

FOUND—A bunch of keys bearing name of George A. Fox. Owner may have same by calling at this office and paying charges.

WANTED

Shoe Factory help at Hampton, N.
H. Cutters will be set to work Sept. 1st. Other departments will be started as soon as possible.
MENTION THIS PAPER.

NOTICE

On Oct. 4, '09, we start running our mill one the winter schedule which is from 7:00 a. m. to 12:00 p. m. and 1:00 p.
m. to 5:00 p. m., 6 days a week, except holidays.We are now running our new mill, and are fully equipped with all modern machinery, and are carrying a full and complete stock of doors, sash and blinds, all kinds of eastern and western lumber, house and finish shingles, lathes, cement and roofing papers, which are at your disposal at the lowest market prices.Let us figure your plans, it costs nothing to have us take up your list of finish and quote you prices.

SUGDEN BROS.

Portsmouth, N. H.
Telephone connection. c-h,1w,30

BLUEBERRIES PICKED AT DOVER

One of the most unusual shipments of summer fruit on record at Dover was that of four bushels of blueberries to Boston and Lynn Saturday morning. The berries were brought to Dover from New Durham, where they were picked Friday.The Hudson-Fulton celebration ended in New York on Saturday night.
The big fleet of warships break up today, and the New Hampshire and Wisconsin are expected here in a few days.

SEEKING THE CAUSE.

He Went the Right Way About It and Was Successful.By RICHARD PARKER SHELTON.
(Copyright, 1909, by Associated Literary Press.)Bobby Renwick, dictating some important letters to his stenographer, glanced abstractedly at the handful of mail the office boy laid on the desk before him. Among the envelopes he caught sight of one that he hurriedly separated from its fellows and, with quivering pulses, glanced at the superscription in a firm, familiar hand."Er—just a minute, Miss Stone," said he, opening the envelope and drawing out its contents.The stenographer sat tapping her pen on the pad in her lap, while Renwick, his brows suddenly puckering in a frown, read the brief missive he held in a hand that was rather unsteady. The epistle ran:Dear Bobby—It is impossible—impossible, a mistake from the very beginning. We can't—no mustn't. I am afraid and terribly grieved. I don't know how I can ever make you see it in the right light. I only know that our plans are very, very foolish and that we must never think of them again.We are sailing this afternoon on the Avonka for two months on the continent.
Please forgive me, and above all things, do not write to me. Yours, ELINOR.For a moment Bobby sat like a man stunned by some crushing blow, his eyes staring straight ahead and the letter crumpled in his hand. Then suddenly he swung about to his desk—swinging his chair so violently that the stenographer jumped nervously and dropped her pencil.She picked it up hurriedly, smoothed the paper of the pad and turned alert-ly to Renwick as if expecting him to continue the dictation. But Bobby Renwick was rummaging through the pigeonholes of the desk, throwing things right and left in a veritable frenzy of haste. The stenographer looked at him with a puzzled frown. Originally he was the calmest of mortals."YOU ARE MAKING IT A SUPPOSITIONAL CASE," SAID HEand this unaccountable flurry of his upset all her preconceived ideas of the man."The letter I was taking, Mr. Renwick," she suggested tentatively."Letter?" Bobby repeated. "Letter?" Oh, yes! Never mind it now. Moreover will finish 'em up. Tell him I say for him to look after the matter as best he can, and say, send Harding in, will you, please? Send him in immediately if you will."The stenographer, her bewilderment increased perceptibly, hurried into the outer office to deliver the message. A moment later Harding pushed through the door of Renwick's private office and stood staring at the man before the desk."Bobby, old boy, what's up?" he asked anxiously. "What's wrong with you?""Eh?" said Bobby without looking up. "Say, what time does the Avonka sail this afternoon? Do you know?"He shot out the question in a fashion that seemed to him that if the man before him was unable to answer the question it might go hard with him."Four o'clock, I believe," said Harding.Renwick glanced at the clock on the wall and jumped to his feet so quickly that his desk chair overturned with a crash."Four o'clock!" Bobby fairly howled.
"Don't tell me that! It's ten minutes of 4 now! Say, something's got to be done! Send Jim down for a cab! Tell him if it isn't at the curb by the time I get down his life won't be worth 3 cents!"Harding gave one perturbed glance at his partner, started to remonstrate, thought better of it and tumbled headlong through the door, bellowing imprudently for the office boy. Bobby meanwhile caught up his hat and his overcoat, tore through the outer office and sped down the long corridor toward the elevator. At his heels, panting and sadly disturbed, came Harding."Say, what's the row anyway?" he demanded. "Where are you going in all this rush, Bobby?"The elevator came whirling up.
Bobby jumped into it."Don't know yet where I may land," he called as the descent began. "Enough, maybe."The cab Jim had summoned was just drawing up to the curb as Renwick rushed from the building."Pier 70?" he bellowed at the cabby as he tumbled in. "Let the beast out.
I'll make it well worth your while."They reached the pier after a mad gallop. On the wharf was a scattering crowd, and out in the stream the Avonka was making her way unresistingly toward the bay. Bobby groaned.
Then his eyes fell on a tug moored to the wharf. Thither he sped. A few words to the red faced man leaning out of her pilot house window, a display of greenbacks on Bobby's part, and the latter leaped aboard and the tug was speeding after the departing liner.Down the bay went the liner, and after her at full speed raced the tug, kicking up a great commotion.As they neared the Avonka the tug's whistle began to scream. The liner's whistle answered with deep throated brays. Closer drew the tug, and over the liner's side was dropped the dangling length of the Jacob's ladder, at the top of which a crowd of excited passengers watched the oncoming tug.Presently they were alongside. Renwick caught the ladder and scrambled up to the liner's deck.A HYPOTHETICAL NAMELESS RIVAL.His Suppositious Case Brought
His Sweetheart to Terms.By HENRY WALKER.
(Copyright, 1909, by Associated Literary Press.)They sat at the end of the porch and discussed the situation calmly. It was altogether too torrid for heated argument. If they felt any inward tumult
they vented it through their fingers rather than their tongues, she by pulling her palm leaf fan idly to pieces
and he by ruthlessly stripping the honey-suckle vine."What's your objection to next fall, Jean? I'm not quizzing you, you know, but I do feel a sort of impersonal curiosity.""Next fall? Why, it's August now, and fall begins with September, and
then it's no time before it's winter,
and—I can't possibly fancy myself a settled, married person next winter!""Sober, indeed! Matrimony doesn't make people settled nowadays. You know you'll be on the go when you're married.""I never said there was. I just supposed a case. But, I say, Jean, will you make it October?""No!" She had reached the doorway.
September!"He heard her running lightly upstairs. Stopping, he picked up the mulled palm fan and folded its remains tenderly into his pocket.The Frenchwoman,
The distinguished quality of the Frenchwoman is her strong common sense. She is not a sentimentalist, but is eminently practical. If there is so much comfort, substantially and securely among the French middle class
she would not take the larger share of the credit for it. In "Princess of the French" Mr. E. J. Baker says that all her domestic affairs are regulated by the strictest prudence, carefulness and thoroughness.The domestic instinct is so strong in the Frenchwoman that the safety of her home is apt to become to her an subject too absorbing, too exclusive, and too lead to the defects and drawbacks which attend all exaggeration. It is not the Frenchman so much as the Frenchwoman who "fills the stocking"
with small savings, a little reconized
there, a little here, and who has built up a position of some substance for many a family who commenced humbly and knew hardship.The power of patient industry of the French workingman is scarcely less
admirable than his social abnegation.
For qualities that were so salutary have those of the Frenchman because of her inferior position and greater trials.When one considers the wages that are earned by the working class in France and the cost of food and manufactured goods, and the degree of comfort to be found in their homes and the well looked after appearance of the children,
this could never be without the solid qualities of the women.Local Critics.
"Local color" is an excellent adjunct
to a good story, but it cannot supply
the place of incident and character. A young author now in possession of a promising reputation has related how this fact was first painfully impressed upon his mind. He had spent the summer in an ancient seaport of New England and desired to reproduce its atmosphere of quaint, old fashioned irregularity in a story.He worked hard over it. When the tale was done it occurred to him to try its effect upon a native resident, a retired sea captain, unlettered, but intelligent."Does it seem natural? Is it like the place?""Yes, oh, yes," replied the old man promptly. "It's like the place. But seems to me, places were made for things, and so I have had a 'waitin' all along for something to do doin', and the first thing that happened was this end."Still more crushing was the comment of another local critic who read the story after it was published. Some one asked her if it were not well written."Laud, yes," said she. "It's written real elegant and lifelike as nature, only whatever did he write it for?"Some Doubt About It.
A reception was given by the Medical club in Philadelphia in honor of Sir Lander Brunton, a noted English physician, and in course of the evening he was engaged in a discussion of nervous ill temper. After he had described the beneficial effects of various drugs upon nervous ill tempers he said:"I remember a middle aged woman of most nervous disposition who told me with tears in her eyes how she had once said to her husband:"John, I know I am cross at times.
I know that you find me unkind often.
Sometimes perhaps you think I don't love you. But, John, remember, when such unhappy thoughts assail you that if I had my life to live over again I'd marry you just the same.""I'm not so sure of that," John replied shortly.—Philadelphia Press.A HYPOTHETICAL NAMELESS RIVAL.His Suppositious Case Brought
His Sweetheart to Terms.By HENRY WALKER.
(Copyright, 1909, by Associated Literary Press.)They sat at the end of the porch and discussed the situation calmly. It was altogether too torrid for heated argument. If they felt any inward tumult
they vented it through their fingers
rather than their tongues, she by pulling her palm leaf fan idly to pieces
and he by ruthlessly stripping the honey-suckle vine."What's your objection to next fall, Jean? I'm not quizzing you, you know, but I do feel a sort of impersonal curiosity.""Next fall? Why, it's August now,
and fall begins with September, and
then it's no time before it's winter,
and—I can't possibly fancy myself a settled, married person next winter!""Sober, indeed! Matrimony doesn't make people settled nowadays. You know you'll be on the go when you're married.""I never said there was. I just supposed a case. But, I say, Jean, will you make it October?""No!" She had reached the doorway.
September!"He heard her running lightly upstairs. Stopping, he picked up the mulled palm fan and folded its remains
tenderly into his pocket.The Frenchwoman,
The distinguished quality of the Frenchwoman is her strong common sense. She is not a sentimentalist, but is eminently practical. If there is so much comfort, substantially and securely among the French middle class
she would not take the larger share of the credit for it. In "Princess of the French" Mr. E. J. Baker says that all
her domestic affairs are regulated by the strictest prudence, carefulness and thoroughness.The domestic instinct is so strong in the Frenchwoman that the safety of
her home is apt to become to her an subject too absorbing, too exclusive, and
too lead to the defects and drawbacks
which attend all exaggeration. It is not the Frenchman so much as the Frenchwoman who "fills the stocking"
with small savings, a little reconized
there, a little here, and who has built up a position of some substance for many a family who commenced humbly and knew hardship.The power of patient industry of the French workingman is scarcely less
admirable than his social abnegation.
For qualities that were so salutary
have those of the Frenchman because of her inferior position and greater trials.When one considers the wages that are earned by the working class in France and the cost of food and manufactured goods, and the degree of comfort to be found in their homes and the well
looked after appearance of the children,
this could never be without the solid
qualities of the women.Local Critics.
"Local color" is an excellent adjunct
to a good story, but it cannot supply
the place of incident and character. A young author now in possession of a promising reputation has related how
this fact was first painfully impressed
upon his mind. He had spent the summer in an ancient seaport of New England and desired to reproduce its atmosphere of quaint, old fashioned irregularity in a story.He worked hard over it. When the tale was done it occurred to him to try its effect upon a native resident, a retired sea captain, unlettered, but intelligent.

THE D. F. BORTHWICK STORE

INVITES ATTENTION TO A DISPLAY OF

Dress Goods

AND

Trimmings

NOTICE SOME NEW EFFECTS IN OUR WINDOW.

The Departments where these Materials are shown are proving of much interest to buyers.

THE PORTSMOUTH HERALD

AGENTS FOR HERALD

Rockingham Hotel, State St.
 Portsmouth News Co., Congress St.
 (Successor to Moses Bros.)
 B. M. Tilton, Market St.
 News Stand, B. & M. Station.
 News Stand, Ferry Landing.
 S. A. Preble, South St.
 G. A. Norton, Greenland.
 W. C. Hildreth, York Beach, Me.
 J. L. Holland, York Village, Me.
 H. M. Curtis, New Castle.
 Batchelder's News Stand, Exeter.
 W. C. Walker, Rye.
 Lloyd Shapleigh, Kittery, Me.
 Ernest Baker, Kittery, Me.
 Walker's Variety Store, Kittery, Me.
 Norman Dunbar, Kittery, Me.
 Louis Keene, Kittery, Me.
 Russell Brackett, Kittery, Me.
 Elmer Blaney, Kittery, Me.
 Fred H. Marden, Kittery Point, Me.
 Arthur Seawards, Kittery Point, Me.
 C. W. Phillips, Kittery Point, Me.
 Roland Bedell, Kittery Point, Me.
 W. F. Cousins, Ogunquit, Me.
 H. G. Moulton, Wells Corner, Me.
 Murray Nelson, South Eliot, Me.
 Ralph Villars, Exeter.
 Raymond Tucker, Eliot, Me.

CITY BRIEFS

A hull in police court circles.
 Philbrick for electrical work.
 Grapes are going to be plenty.
 A. O. Hall, Oct. 7, tickets 50 cents.
 More changes in the diocese of Manchester.
 Division 2 will have a ball Oct. 7 at Freeman's hall.
 The A. A. club have declared against woman's suffrage.
 Have your shoes repaired at John Mott's, 24 Congress street.
 Special police officer Weston is doing regular duty for a while.
 Smoke the Warwick 10c cigar, Ed. Brown manufacturer, 38 Market St.
 The discharge of the sunset gun at the forts is heard earlier every day.
 Raymond A. Philbrick, electrician and locksmith, 26 Congress street.
 Moulton's quick lunch now open at A. S. L. ferry waiting room, Portsmouth.
 Capt. Robinson will be missed on the bank boat, which has so ably covered for years.
 Congress street this morning presented a sight in the way of dirt that would stagger a blind man.
 Good music, good company, good dancing and a good time at A. O. H. Hall, Oct. 7. All for 50 cents.
 Don't forget harvest dinner and supper at Methodist vestry Wednesday, Oct. 6. Dinner twenty-five cents; supper fifteen cents.
 The world's series will now take the attention of the baseball fans. The Boston and New York series will be witnessed by many of the fans.
 Don't go home to Maine hungry. Take a quick lunch at A. S. L. waiting room at Ferry landing in Portsmouth.
 But one show at Music Hall this week "The Final Settlement" on Friday evening. Next week "Paid in Full" and "The Third Degree" are the strong attractions.
 Get your dinner Wednesday at Methodist vestry, State street.
 Be sure and go to Methodist vestry for a good harvest dinner and supper, Wednesday, Oct. 6.
 PRESENT TO MISS DAVIDSON
 Some of the High school girls presented a handsome bronze desk blotter set to Miss Davidson, who recently resigned from the Portsmouth High school teaching force.

OCTOBER LILACS

Policeman William Seymour Has White Lilacs in Full Bloom

It's not very often that you can present your friends with a bouquet of lilacs in October, but that is what Police Officer William Seymour has been doing for the last few days. The flowers are from a white lilac tree in his yard which is in full bloom and bears as many pretty blossoms as any tree of its kind did in the month of May. The fragrance from the flowers is astonishing and several people have called at the home to get a look at the rare thing of beauty in this season of the year.

PRIESTS TRANSFERRED

Three More Appointments are Announced by Bishop Guertin

Manchester, Oct. 4.—The long-awaited appointment of Rev. Thomas M. O'Leary, chancellor of the Catholic diocese of New Hampshire, to the rectorship of the cathedral, was made yesterday by Bishop Guertin. The position of secretary to the bishop has been given to Rev. Wm. H. Sweeney, while Fr. Sweeney's chaplainship of the Mount St. Mary's convent in this city is to be filled by Rev. C. R. Luddy, the former curate of St. Anne's church.

CONVENTION DELEGATES

K. of P. Gathering to be Held On Wednesday at Keene

Louis Pendleton, H. H. Foot and C. E. Hoyt will attend the Knights of Pythias convention at Keene on Wednesday as delegates from the K. of P. lodge in this city.

Mrs. Alice Johnson will also attend the Pythian Sisterhood as a representative from Portsmouth on the same date. The grand chancellor, who will preside, is Jesse O. White of New Castle.

THE POPE IS SICK

Rome, Oct. 4.—For several days past the Pope has been sick, but he continued to see visitors, hoping to overcome what he considers a slight indisposition. He received in audience one of the archbishops, who noticed that the pontiff appeared tired and languid. After the audience was ended the symptoms became aggravated, there being considerable pain and swelling of the left leg, which indicated a recurrence of the gout. Although the attack is slight, the Pope's doctors have insisted upon complete rest, and the audiences have been suspended.

BABY'S MOTHER MISSING

Newburyport, Oct. 4.—The authorities are looking for the mother of a two months old child born at the Homeopathic hospital here. A woman giving the name of Mrs. John Kennedy early in August and gave birth to a child. As soon as she was able to be about she made an excuse that gave her an opportunity to leave the grounds and has not since been heard from.

AT NAVY YARD

Hurry Desired on Ajax Work

Big cutter to Run in Place of 132

Removing Guns to Be First Work on the Maine

Three Shipwrights Were Called Today for Work

Coming After the Fleet Disperses
 The tug Patapsco ordered here for yard towing will leave New York as soon as the fleet there breaks up.

Steam Launch to Make Trips

A 33-foot steam cutter will be put on the trips between the yard and this city tomorrow during the repairs of the ferry 132. The cutter will be for exclusive use of yard officials and families. Clerks, draftsmen and everybody else in the habit of using the ferry will have to find other means of transportation.

Not for George

A queer situation resulted in the moving of the collier Ajax on Thursday last when the watchman on duty was unable to get off the vessel in her new berth and his relief could find no way of getting on the cat. The boys at the navy yard are at last to know why George did not do the climb act on the ropes leading out from the bow.

Will Soon Take Off Guns

The first work to be done on the Maine will be begun shortly in the removal of her guns. Nearly all the surveys and estimates on the vessel have been approved by the bureau at Washington.

Want the Ajax

The department has instructed the yard commandant that the Ajax will go in commission as soon as she can be made ready, consequently a little hurry will result on the repairs now under way.

Dan Can Do It

Captain of the yard watch Jefferson C. Rowe is enjoying a furlough of eight days from his duties. During his absence Daniel Lyndon of the yard watch is wearing the shield, he will do the honors as captain and do a sprint with the red flag that means a surprise to marathon artists in case the fire alarm sounds.

Back from New York

Civil Engineer A. J. Menocal, who has been on a furlough to New York, returned to duty today.

Three More on the Payroll

Three shipwrights were required today by the labor board for work in the manufacturing department.

Back to Maine

Ralph Kelly, clerk in the supplies and accounts, left on Saturday for a visit of two weeks at his former home in Portland.

Will Reside in Portsmouth

Chief Master at Arms F. T. Mayes of the U. S. S. prison ship Southey has taken a residence on Brewster street in this city.

The Last of a Famous Ship Built Here

The U. S. S. Enterprise, built at this yard in 1876, has been sold for her old junk to a Boston firm for $11,837. For 17 years she has been used at Boston as a nautical school ship.

FENCE AROUND NORTH CHURCH

John S. Rand, a deacon of the North church, will present a memorial fence to inclose the church building on Pleasant and Church streets, in memory of his wife. The designs for this are being drawn by J. Edgar Norris, architect, of Boston. This fence will make a great change in the appearance of the building. For many years the space between the sidewalk on Pleasant street and the building has been used as a part of the sidewalk and a place for idlers and sometimes for teamsters. The church property will now be protected.

PERSONALS

John H. Dowd is a visitor in Concord today.

Lawyer Frank Fernald of Dover was a visitor here on Sunday.

Bert Plumstead of Haverhill passed Sunday at his home in this city.

Admiral and Mrs. Joseph Foster have returned from their trip to Europe.

J. E. Kennedy of Dover was a visitor here Sunday calling on old friends.

Mr. W. A. Partington of Boston passed Sunday with his family in Greenland.

Arthur G. Brewster and family close their cottage at North Rye Beach today.

Mrs. Eben Brackett of Union street is passing several weeks in Boston with relatives.

Hon. Edwin F. Jones of Manchester spent Sunday with his family at Hampton Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy de Rochemont of Quincy, Mass., passed Sunday with relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hodsdon of Dover, with a party of friends, were here on Sunday.

Officers Frank West and F. E. H. Marden are enjoying their annual vacation of two weeks.

Mrs. Samuel G. Kingsbury has returned from a few weeks' visit with relatives in Butler, N. J.

Harry F. Flagler and Miss Dorothy Flagler of Pensacola, Fla., are in Portsmouth for a few days.

Bradley Ward, clerk at the post-office, will resume his duties today after his ten days' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Goodwin have returned home after a few days' visit with friends at Grape Island.

Harold Ham and Charles Weaver leave today for the northern part of the state on a gunning trip.

Miss Florence E. Hanscom has taken the position of bookkeeper at the store of N. H. Beane and company.

Fred C. Moulton opened his new quick lunch establishment at the A. S. L. waiting room on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Sadie Allen of this city is passing a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen of Berwick.

Miss Catherine Penrice of Philadelphia is spending a few days in Portsmouth where some of her ancestors resided.

Secretary Lewis W. Crockett of the New Hampshire Fire Insurance company spent Sunday with his family at York Beach.

Sylvester G. Canney of Manchester, an old-time engineer on the Boston and Maine railroad, passed Sunday here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Tarbell of New Castle attended the hunt dinner at the Myopia Hunt club at Hamilton, Mass., on Saturday.

The engagement of Thomas J. Stewart of Beverly and Mary E. McClure of this city is announced, the wedding to occur this month.

Curtis Matthews of Bowdoin college passed Sunday at his home in this city. He was at Cambridge with the football squad, but did not play.

Lieutenant Fred H. Harriman was a guest of the Fourth company, coast artillery at Dover on the occasion of its field day at Granite State park on Saturday.

Next Sunday Mr. Gooding will exchange pulpits with Rev. Theodore Bacon, minister of the North church of Salem, a young preacher of the Unitarian denomination.

Mr. Harry Lambert, business manager of the "Paid in Full" troupe, was in Portsmouth today, making final arrangements for the presentation here on next Monday.

Miss Alma E. Ordway of 135 Merrimack street is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Frank H. Bartlett at Hotel Bartlett, Cambridge Springs, Pa. Miss Ordway is accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Joseph Bell of Portsmouth, N. H.—Newburyport News.

Councilman Eben H. Blaisdell and nephew, Harry Blaisdell, left on Sunday for New York, from where Harry Blaisdell will return to his studies at the Baltimore dental college. Forrest Knowles, clerk at the postoffice will pass his vacation with Mr. Blaisdell in Baltimore.

NATIONAL HOTEL CAFE

In conjunction with our cafe business table d'hote meals will be served hereafter at 40c each. Board $5.00 per week.

THE IONAS AT SPORT

The Ionas club athletic department are out after good basketball men and will put a fast team in the age this winter.

Brand new songs at Music Hall

MANY CASES FOR SUPERIOR COURT

When It Meets in this City on October 19

The docket for the October term of superior court which sits in Portsmouth Oct. 19, was on Saturday sent out by Clerk of Court Charles H. Knight at Exeter. There is a large number of cases marked for trial and the civil actions number to 652, equity cases to 289 and state actions to eleven.

Many damage cases are to be tried some of which are of special interest. The practicing attorneys of Rockingham county bar now number forty-three, the latest member being Ernest G. Templeton of Exeter.

CLUB COMEDIANS

New Ladies' Association Going Before the Footlights

The X club is the latest in the social set of the city and the members, many of which have been before the footlights, will install much enthusiasm into the organization in the way of stage work. They are already planning for a production known as "He Loves Me; He Loves Me Not." In the work they will have the assistance of certain members of the S. S. club.

BAPTISTS TO GO TO CONCORD

Rev. and Mrs. William P. Stanley, Harry A. Yeaton, Lewis E. Staples, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clough, Mrs. A. M. Parry, Mrs. T. W. Coram, Mrs. J. W. Shannon, Miss Fannie Shannon and Mrs. Emmons Garland will represent the Middle Street Baptist church at the state convention beginning in Concord tonight.

Deacon Staples went this afternoon and the rest will go on Tuesday forenoon.

NOTICE

Regular meeting of Division 2, A. O. H. Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. Business of importance. All members are requested to be present.

T. CONNORS, Pres.

AFTER MORE MONEY

According to the report from the Franklin Pierce Veterans they are not done for the season and will take the Eureka to Biddeford, a little later, and go after more money in a payout.

BABY CASWELL DEAD

Dorothy E. Caswell, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caswell of No. 1 Pickering street, died this morning, aged one month and twenty-two days.

Pictures at Music Hall this week.

All Coal is Good Coal

If selected wisely
 If stored suitably
 If screened properly
 If delivered carefully

There are no "ifs" about

Our Coal Our Methods Our Service

Our customers know it and will tell you that our

"Ifless" Coal is Good Coal

C. E. WALKER & CO.

Cor. State & Water Sts.

'Phone 74.

HENRY CHIN CO. 9 LADD ST.

Open Wednesday August 18 Lunch and Chop Suey

Dinner Twenty Cents

Open 10 A. M., close 1:30 A. M. Everything Satisfactory

The Piano for You to Buy

Is the one that You Can Play. Any one can play the

Autopiano

and play it well. If you are "From Missouri" Let us Show You. Free Demonstration at

H. P. Montgomery's

6 Pleasant Street

Opp. Postoffice

--- THE ---

20th CENTURY Divan Bed

COMFORTABLE

HANDSOME

DURABLE

Nothing on the market to compare with it. The inventor and Proprietor of this Bed will be at our store Saturday evening, Oct. 2d, and give practical demonstrations.

Call or look in the window. It will interest and perhaps pay you.

The Portsmouth Furniture Co.

Corner Deer and Vaughan Streets.

Akron Drain Pipe

FLUE LINING, LAND TILE

AT

A. P. WENDELL & CO'S 2 Market Square.

LAWRENCE

THE CONGRESS ST. TAILOR.

A Concrete

building is a permanent investment because it defies the hand of time. It is frost and moisture proof, cannot burn or attract heat, and requires no paint lathing or repairs. The first cost is the only cost, once erected it lasts forever

C. D. HANSCOM, 9 Congress St.